Liquor Referendum Vote Shows Larger Margin For Control

Figures For October 20 Plebiscite Complete Except For Atlin; Majority Is About 35,000 For New Statute; Increased Leads on Island.

Government Control had a majority of 34,947 over Prohibition in the whole of British Columbia, with the exception of Atlin, according to final returns of the plebiscite vote of October 20 made public by the official Government returning officer to-day.

The totals are: Government Control, 89,688; Prohibition, 54,741; rejected ballots, 1,637.

There were 13,617 absentee votes cast in the whole Province. These are included in the foregoing totals. Delay in getting out the final returns has been due to the time taken in distributing the absentee votes to their districts.

Returns the day after the vote gave Government Control about 76,000 and Prohibition 49,000. Absentee votes were not counted.

The final returns are not yet in from Atlin. This is because of transportation difficulties. The returns have to be sent in by dog sleighs from some of the outlying areas. There are 1,540 voters in Atlin.

Out of a total of 200,892 registered voters in the Province, 146,066 voted on the liquor plebiscite.

Only two districts out of 39 voted dry. They are Chilliwack, which gave prohibition a majority of nearly 400, and Richmond, with a majority of more than 100. In Slocan prohibition won by one vote. Vancouver Island averaged almost exactly two to one for Government Control.

The complete returns for the Province, with the exception of Atlin, are:

ALBERTANS WANT NATURAL RESOURCES

Government Contemplates Court Action to Take Resources From Dominion

Edmonton, Nov. 17.—The Government of Alberta has a fixed policy on the question of the natural resources within the boundaries of the Province and will adhere to it firmly. In an interview with the Canadian Press, Hon. J. R. Boyle, Attorney-General, stated clearly that it is the determination of the Provincial Government to institute an action in the courts to recover the natural resources for Alberta, in the event of the Federal Government failing to take action or indicate its policy. Such an action, Mr. Boyle stated, might be instituted in the Supreme Court of Alberta and carried on to the Privy Council, or it could be started in the Exchequer Court of Canada and carried on to the Privy Council.

Any case presented would include claims for compensation for lands and resources used and revenue obtained by the Federal Government since 1905.

San Francisco, Nov. 17.—Tactical plans for the defence of San Francisco, which is to be "attacked" on November 29 and for two or three days thereafter by a powerful "enemy" fleet, were being drawn up by Admiral Hugh Rodman, commander of the Pacific fleet, here yesterday.

GREAT HOUSING SCHEME SUGGESTED

Plan of Ottawa G. W. V. A. Would Call For Outlay of $50,000,000

Ottawa, Nov. 17. — (Canadian Press)—Additional plans for re-establishment for returned soldiers to include a $50,000,000 housing scheme, as well as establishment in professions and enterprises are being discussed by Ottawa war veterans and a committee has been appointed by Ottawa command of the G. W. V. A. to consider the matter and report to the next meeting.

The housing scheme as outlined would provide individual loans not to exceed $5,000, repayable in thirty years, the buildings to be of a standard pattern and the purchase of land and material as well as supervision of erection to be under the Soldiers' Settlement Board.

3,500 ALBERTA THRESHER LICENSES

Edmonton, Nov. 17.—Exceeding by 700 or 800 the mark established in 1919, the thresher licenses issued by the Alberta Department of Agriculture for the present year will reach at least 3,500, according to the Government statistician.

Although nothing in the way of an average will be struck until all the returns are made by the threshers and thereafter compiled, which is not likely to be before the middle of next January, it is estimated that the spring wheat yield in Alberta has been in the neighborhood of twenty-five bushels an acre, one of the best in many years.

OVER 600 DRUG ADDICTS IN B.C.

Liability of $3,600,000, Doctor Tells Child Welfare Association

Vancouver, Nov. 17. — "There are more than 600 drug addicts in British Columbia, and taking the usual statistical commercial value of a life as $6,000 this means a liability on our province of $3,600,000," declared Dr. Malcolm T. Maceachern, superintendent of the General Hospital, in a notable address before the Child Welfare Association of British Columbia here last evening.

"This large number of drug addicts is not only becoming a heavy liability owing to their non-productive capacity, but they are a definite loss owing to the part which they take in crime. There is need for a psychopathic institution for the scientific treatment of these cases, with such organization as is necessary to re-citizenize them.

Control

"Federal and Provincial legislation should be enacted to control the importation and use of drugs, calling for routine inspection of sources of supply and disposal, and for necessary treatment of cases of addiction, and for the infliction of heavy punishment on offenders against the law."

This was the summary of Dr. Maceachern's address on the drug evil. He also, however, discussed general health problems in an exhaustive and illuminating manner. He pointed out that the more money a city spends on public health, the less it will have to spend on charities and corrections, and cited three eastern cities.

Vancouver

Greater financial support for public health enterprises in Vancouver was dealt with by the speaker, who pointed out that Vancouver spends $408,000 yearly on police, $340,000 on fire protection, $1,200,000 on education, and for health, including hospitals, tuberculosis and the operation of the Health Officer's department, $250,000.

To-day's programme includes addresses by Madame Clare Sumner on "Music in Our Schools," and "Technical Education," by George Lister. This afternoon the speakers will be Mrs. James Whitcombe, president of the Parent-Teacher Federation, Rev. A. H. Sovereign and J. Storey. To-night is expected that Mrs. Ralph Smith and Hon. J. W. de B. Farris will address the convention.

1920 POTATO CROP SHOWS INCREASE

138,527,000 Bushels as Against 125,574,900 in Canada in 1919

Ottawa, Nov. 17. — (Canadian Press.)—An increased potato yield for the whole of Canada is reported by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. The harvest for the whole of the Dominion is represented by 138,527,000 bushels from 784,544 acres; as against 125,574,900 bushels from 818,767 acres in 1919. The average yield per acre in 1920 is 176½ bushels, as against 153½ bushels last year and 146 bushels, the decennial average for the period 1910-1919.

By provinces the yield per acre is well above the decennial average throughout the Maritime Provinces, Quebec and Ontario. In the western provinces, Alberta is the only one with above the decennial average. Manitoba had a particularly poor potato season, the average yield being only 91 bushels per acre, as against 126 last year. Alberta had a yield of 166 bushels this year as against 179¾ last year and a decennial average of 151½ bushels.

British Columbia's yield this year averaged 184¾ bushels per acre as against 170 last year and 204¼ for the ten-year average.

The value to farmers of the potato crop of 1920 is estimated at $134,693,000, as against $118,894,200 in 1919, the price per bushel ranging from 65 cents in Prince Edward Island to $1.39 in Manitoba. For Canada the average price per bushel is 97 cents, as against 95 cents last year.

Border Liquor Situation Stirs Ontario Province

Toronto, Nov. 17.—Commenting editorially on the killing of Beverly Trumble, a hotelkeeper, at Sandwich, by Rev. J. O. L. Spracklin, a special license inspector, The Christian Guardian, the Methodist organ of Canada, this week declares that respect for the law must be re-established on the Essex County border, even at the cost of human life if necessary. The Guardian says in part:

"Respect for the law must be re-established and its right vindicated no matter at what cost, even indeed at the cost of human life if it has to be. The tragic thing at Sandwich is not that a man was killed by an officer of the law in trying to uphold its dignity; the tragic thing is that the law has been shamelessly trampled under foot and counted an unholy thing. And this must be stopped. . . . To tone and soften down our programme because of what has happened would be to be guilty of the veriest moral cowardice, and also of an attempt at moral suicide."

Statement By an M.P.P.

Toronto, Nov. 17.—Dr. Forbes Godfrey, M.P.P. for West York, in an address last night to the Conservatives of Ward Eight, attacked Attorney-General Raney for not prosecuting Rev. J. O. L. Spracklin for shooting and killing Beverly Trumble, of Sandwich. Dr. Godfrey said a minister of the Gospel should not have been appointed to the position of license inspector, and in saying this he stated that he was a Methodist and his father was a Methodist minister for forty years.

"It is my duty to tell the electors of this Province," he declared, "that the shooting affair at Windsor is not going to be closed until Spraklin has been placed on trial." This statement was loudly applauded by the gathering.

Urges Raney to Act

"I do not believe that the people of this province will rest," Dr. Godfrey continued, "and I certainly will not rest in the Legislature until this has been done. As a member of the Legislature, I charge Mr. Raney that it is up to him to act in the matter.

"I would say further that every amateur preventive officer in Essex County should be discharged."

HINTS AT RAILWAY STRIKE IN CANADA

Winnipeg G. W. V. A. Head Speaks of Hanna's "No Politics" Order

Winnipeg, Nov. 17. — Premier Meighen received a deputation of Great War Veterans here last night prior to his departure for the East. The veterans submitted five resolutions dealing with unemployment, the recent order of President Hanna, of the Canadian National Railways, and other matters affecting the returned men. The Prime Minister, while promising fullest consideration of the questions submitted, did not enter into detailed discussion owing to the shortness of his stay here.

A. E. Moore, president of the local branch of the G. W. V. A., speaking at a meeting of the veterans later on the Hanna C. N. R. dismissal order, said the Government refused to be clear, but he would like to see the Government definitely hide behind Mr. Hanna, or Mr. Hanna hide behind the Government. He wondered "when the Government will wake up to the size of the trouble it is storing up for itself by letting such a state of things go on, since the brotherhoods of the Canadian National Railways are up in arms against the ruling."

Mention of Strike.

Mr. Moore declared that Premier Meighen had been informed of the situation regarding the brotherhoods and the Hanna order, but that the Government so far had failed to take any steps to stave off a strike that would tie up Canada from coast to coast. "If that trouble comes," he said, "the veterans can rest easy that they did not question the authority of Mr. Hanna, but asked that the matter be removed from the railway to the House of Commons."

INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF CUSTOMS HERE

Sir Francis Aglen on Chinese Situation; Returning to Orient

The opinion is held in Great Britain that the great need of China is stability, progress, and a settled administration. The interests of Great Britain in China are so vast, and her future in the development of the resources of the country so important that the British authorities are watching carefully the trend of events in the Orient.

This statement is made to The Times by Sir Francis Aglen, Inspector General of Chinese Customs, who is now at the Empress Hotel with Lady Aglen, awaiting the departure of the Empress of Russia. Sir Francis has been on leave for five months, since he passed through from the Orient, and has been travelling in the Old Country and in the United States.

Situation Complex.

The Chinese situation is an abnormal one, not only in its political status, a phase upon which the Inspector-General is reluctant to touch at any length, but financial owing to the enhanced value of the tael, which has affected the payment of liabilities to foreign countries. The credit of China has been sustained largely by the department over which Sir Francis exercises jurisdiction, which with the other administration in foreign management have maintained their jurisdiction in parts of China over which the central authority at Peking has very little actual control, practically none in the remoter provinces. Yet such is the confidence in these administrations that Chinese who have no love for Peking willingly recognize its foreign-directed officials.

Sir Francis looks to substantial commercial progress in China in the development of her immense natural resources, for not only in Manchester goods, but in electrical and other industrial machinery British goods still hold a leading part, and have a greater opening as the gradual elimination of German influence has permitted the expansion of some lines in which British manufacturers are pre-eminent.

Likes Vancouver Island.

The Inspector-General was in the city for a short time two years ago, and is delighted with Vancouver Island, which he regards as an ideal country for retirement for officials who have spent their life in Asia. He says, also, that in Great Britain eyes are turned to parts of the overseas Dominions like British Columbia for the settlement of the surplus population, and particularly the overplus of strong young women who learned during the war years to engage in occupations which had hitherto been closed to them, and which are again closing by the absorption of demobilized men.

Start Reserve Work to Make Ready For New Harbor Bridge

Returned and Married Men to Be Given Preference In Employment, Hon. John Hart Announces; Work Will Relieve Distress Here and Make Factory Sites Ready.

Development work on the Songhees Reserve to take Johnson Street through to Esquimalt Road in preparation for the building and opening of the Johnson Street bridge will be started next Monday, according to an announcement made to-day by the Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance.

Other roads will also be constructed through the Reserve to throw the whole area open for industrial sites, as practically every site to which there is access is now being used.

Plans for this development work have just been completed by Government engineers. The work will be carried out under the direction of the Department of Railways.

100 Men Start Monday.

At least 100 men will be taken on for the work next Monday.

Orders were issued to-day by the Hon. Mr. Hart that returned soldiers and married men are to be given the preference.

A start on the work has been rushed now because of the unemployment problem that is growing more serious here, according to representations made Monday by the returned soldier delegation under Lieut.-Col. Winsby that interviewed Premier Oliver before he left for his Mainland tour.

Returned Men Pleased.

When the news was given out at the ex-service organizations this morning there was great satisfaction and even jubilation.

"This is speedy action with a vengeance," said President Stone, of the Great War Veterans' Association. "Only a few days ago Premier Oliver agreed to try and get the Federal Government to implement the Prime Minister's promise with something tangible, and this action of starting works here without waiting for agreement with the Federal authorities will be greatly appreciated.

"We all recognize that the unemployment situation is one that comes under the purview of the Federal authorities, and that the British Columbia Government is doing its utmost to prevent distress coming to returned men through Ottawa's dilatory methods."

Get Ready For Bridge.

Part of the work will be devoted to the grade approach to the Johnson Street bridge on the Reserve side, because of the announcements from city officials that they are almost ready to start the bridge.

A road is also to be constructed around the waterfront to give access to all waterfront industrial sites such as those under lease to the Sidney Rubber Roofing Co., the Harbor Marine Co., and the Cholberg Shipyards.

To Open All Sites.

Another road is to be built north and south in the middle of the Reserve, from the Johnson Street extension, across Esquimalt Road and alongside of the Canadian National Railway's present yards to tidewater on the Gorge.

The Canadian National is now developing the northerly end of the terminal area, that is, the part north of Esquimalt Road. Survey of the balance of their proposed terminal lands south of Esquimalt Road along by the old shipyards, which they are acquiring from the Provincial Government has been completed.

The new North and South Road which will bisect the Reserve will run along the western boundary of the terminal areas of the Canadian National on both sides of Esquimalt Road. It will make every part of the Reserve accessible.

ONE PER CENT. TO BANKS ON STAMPS

Are Allowed That Much For Handling Luxury Tax Stamps

Ottawa, Nov. 17. — (Canadian Press)—There is absolutely no truth in the statement alleged to have been made in Toronto by E. M. Trowern, secretary of the Retail Merchants' Association of Canada, to the effect that the banks were being paid five per cent. for handling luxury tax stamps, according to George W. Taylor, Deputy Minister of Inland Revenue, who stated that the banks were given a discount of one per cent. on these stamps and that they were under agreement with the Government to distribute them amongst their various branches for the convenience of merchants requiring them.

So far as officials of the Department of Inland Revenue can state, the new method of collecting the tax is working out well and licenses are being applied for and issued as rapidly as that work can be carried out.

HOLLINGER MINE DIVIDENDS LARGE

Timmins, Ont., Nov. 17.—The Hollinger Consolidated Dividend of one per cent, payable December 1, is the eighth to be made this year by that company and makes a total of $1,963,000 so far this year. Another dividend is expected toward the end of the month, which if made will bring the total to nine per cent, or $2,114,000 for the current year.

The Hollinger for 1919 has led all other mines in this country in point of dividends paid, even surpassing the Nipissing, which has $1,800,000 to its credit.

Dominion-Wide Society of Veterans Now Planned

Vancouver, Nov. 17.—Steps looking to the formation of a Dominion-wide fraternal society of veterans of the European war have been originated in Vancouver. Canon Scott, formerly of the chaplain service, who spoke here a few days ago, is understood to have the project very much at heart, and in a letter which he left with the provisional committee he sounded what is intended to be the keynote of the whole venture: "We were comrades in France; let us be comrades here."

G. C. Hodge, for the past year or more Vancouver representative of the Returned Soldier Commission, is to be organizer, and left last night for the interior on business connected with the proposed society.

Before leaving, he stated that it was hoped in the oath of the society to find a common bond for all real fighting men irrespective of present affiliations or political leanings.

Mr. Bell's Charges Are Emphatically Repudiated

Charges made by George Bell, M.P.P., that the recent Liberal convention here was "packed" were denied emphatically this morning by William M. Ivel, president of the Victoria Liberal Association, who, in a statement handed to The Times, asserts that "if the convention had any chance of being packed, it could have only been done by Mr. Bell's supporters."

Mr. Ivel's statement on the matter is as follows:

Regarding your interview with Mr. Geo. Bell, reported November 15, I desire to state that I am surprised that Mr. Bell had not seen fit to talk the results of the Convention over with those who had the arrangements in hand before making any hasty statements. As President of the Liberal Association, I would like to make this statement of fact: The Liberal Association, knowing that Mr. Bell was out of the city, did everything they could to see that Mr. Bell's interests were looked after. We saw that Mrs. Bell, his and her friends were all given tickets. On the other hand, Mr. Oliver, Mr. Hart, Mr. Hall and Mr. Clearihue were not given a single tickets for distribution, all tickets being given out by the office to well-known Liberals, so that if the Convention had any chance of being "packed" it could have only been done

LATEST FIGURES ON UNEMPLOYMENT

Ottawa, Nov. 17.—(Canadian Press)—At the beginning of October, according to the Labor Gazette statistics, the percentage of unemployment among trade unions was 3.25, as compared with four per cent. (revised figures) at the beginning of September and 2.19 at the beginning of October, 1919. In reports from over 1,500 firms the volume of employment showed a decrease, which was more marked in the latter half of the month.

The time loss due to industrial disputes was greater during October than in the previous month, but less than October, 1919. There were in existence during the month twenty strikes, involving about 5,147 persons and resulting in a time loss of 65,556 working days. At the end of the month there were recorded eleven strikes, involving about 1,418 work people.

During the month of October reports were received from two boards established to deal with industrial disputes, four applications for boards were received and a board was established in connection with one of these applications.

AMERICAN GROUP AND SOVIET CONCESSIONS

Stockholm, Nov. 17.—W. V. Vanderlip, of California, who has been in Russia seeking concessions for a western syndicate, and who has arrived here, issued a statement to-day denying the intimation that he had been in Moscow at the instigation of Senator Harding, President-Elect of the United States, in an endeavor to bring about recognition of Soviet Russia by the United States.

"I came to Russia for commercial purposes," he declared, "and I have succeeded in my efforts."

Mr. Vanderlip announced that he has leased for sixty years in behalf of the syndicate 400,000 square miles of Russian territory and that he has made other extensive contracts. With respect to these, he says:

"I have obtained an agreement whereby the Russian Government will purchase in America in three years $3,000,000 worth of merchandise, offering in payment therefor, gold, platinum, oil products, manganese, copper, timber, pulpwood, flax, hides, grain and other raw materials, great quantities of which are ready for immediate shipment. Preference is to be given to the ships of the American Merchant Marine."

Mr. Vanderlip asserted that within a few months conditions in the Far East will be returning to normal, and that goods purchased in America will move freely from all Pacific Coast ports over the Chinese Eastern and Siberian Railways, as well as to the Baltic ports.

FALSE ALARMS.

Windsor, Ont., Nov. 17.—After the city fire chief had advocated that the fire alarm boxes be taken off the streets because of the epidemic of false alarms turned in and the inability of the police to stop it, the Boy Scouts took a hand. They had a still hunt for a week, and finally apprehended two lads, aged thirteen and fourteen respectively, who are alleged to have caused all the trouble.

GRADUATES IN B.C. ARE AIDING M'GILL

$35,700 Collected in One Day in Province For Endowment

Montreal, Nov. 17.—Great enthusiasm marked the second luncheon in connection with the McGill University centenial endowment campaign in St. Lawrence Hall yesterday.

A total of $567,110 was announced for the day's subscriptions, which with Monday's total brought the whole amount raised by the campaign in the first two days to $1,795,923.

Of yesterday's sum $218,000 was raised by the special names committee. Citizens team No. 1 raised $21,110; No. 2 team, $16,903; No. 3 team, $13,545; No. 4 team, $2,830; No. 5 team, $14,235; graduates team, out-of-town graduates, $56,670; medical team, $9,340; lawyers' teams, $9,685; science team, $3,660; commercial teams, $5,230, yesterday.

Hon. Walter Mitchell, Provincial Treasurer of Quebec, stated at the luncheon that the Government of Quebec had always taken a deep interest in education and during the past year had increased its yearly expenditure in that cause from $400,000 to $2,000,000, irrespective of the grants to the University of Montreal, Laval University in Quebec and McGill University, which would bring the yearly expenditure to about $3,000,000.

In announcing the results of the canvassing, it was said that only twenty per cent of the out-of-town graduates' organizations had been heard from, but that the total subscriptions recorded amounted to $56,670.

From British Columbia.

The committee announced that the British Columbia graduates had wired the results of their first day's canvassing as $35,700.

In this connection a challenge had been issued to the medical graduates of other provinces by Dr. R. P. Patterson, of Vancouver, who wired as follows: "Forty-six graduates out of a total of sixty in practice in the city of Vancouver gave $32,000; seventeen of that number gave $1,000 and upwards. The average for each of the forty-six is $695. Issue a challenge to the medical graduates of other provinces to equal this effort."

The reports from other graduate organizations did not show as large results, but as it takes several days for the work to get well under way, it was expected that the returns would reach the Montreal office at the middle and end of this week.

From Ottawa came the news that eight teams were beginning an active canvas, and that one subscription of $10,000 had been received from Dr. P. D. Ross, honorary president of the Ottawa Valley Graduates' Society.

Subscriptions.

Among the larger subscriptions announced at the luncheon yesterday were:

Canadian Pacific Railway, $250,000; British Columbia graduates, $35,700; Hanson Bros., $13,000; Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, $10,000; Theo. Labatte, $10,000; G. A. Grier and sons, $5,000; L. P. Snyder, $5,000; Arthur Lyman, $2,500; Gordon W. Macdougall, $2,500; Asbestos Corporation of Canada, $2,500; Laurentide Co., Ltd., $50,000; Shawnigan Water Power Co., $20,000; Dr. P. D. Ross, $10,000; Royal Securities, $10,000; Mrs. R. Wilson Reford, $5,000; Lawrence MacFarlane, $5,000; Howard Smith Paper Co., $5,000; Paterson Macdonald, $2,500; Goodwins, Ltd., $2,500; A. P. S. Glassco, $2,500.

WORKERS IN PARIS TRIED TO TAKE PLANT

Paris, Nov. 17.—Dismissed workmen of the Bleriot works attempted to storm the plant yesterday with the purpose of occupying and operating it for the benefit of the employees. The workers were repulsed by the police.

An earlier dispatch from Paris said the Bleriot aeroplane works had closed down indefinitely, throwing 7,000 persons out of work.

LABOR SITUATION IN THIS COUNTRY

Ottawa, Nov. 17.—The unemployment situation in Canada is causing much alarm in certain quarters, but according to the information available at the Department of Labor, the situation, while not without its graver aspects, is not one which should cause alarm. Bryce Stewart, Director of the Dominion Employment Service, in a brief general review of the situation, said that he did not consider it alarmingly serious.

Borrowed Money!

SINCE the Oliver Government took office it has been necessary to borrow a considerable amount of money to meet obligations incurred by the previous administration. The loans put through on this account were:

Pacific Great Eastern Railway Construction	$9,500,000.00
P. G. E. (Note) taken over by the Oliver Government. This does not increase liabilities, as it took over $6,000,000.00 of P.G.E. guaranteed stock	4,800,000.00
To meet the liabilities and deficits left by the Bowser Government	4,000,000.00
Total	$18,300,000.00

FURTHER borrowings of the Oliver Government for the purpose of making loans, chiefly for development purposes, all of which are returnable to the Province, with interest, were:

Land Settlement Board	$2,650,000.00
Better Housing	1,361,000.00
Soldiers' Land Act	700,000.00
Water Act, 1914	395,000.00
Department of Industries	690,000.00
South Vancouver Loan	790,000.00
	$6,586,000.00

No amounts have been borrowed for consolidated fund to cover expenditures incurred since the Oliver Government took office.
Borrowed for Good Roads and Highways	$1,650,000.00

IT is good business to borrow money for development purposes. Investors appreciate this, and that is one reason why British Columbia bonds are now eagerly sought after and command a good premium.

"Unemployment reaching an acute stage in Toronto. Can shipbuilding programme, as far as Toronto is concerned, be expedited? Sixty-five returned men discharged from general post office. May they be reinstated?

"Am arranging with Provincial Minister of Labor for proper classification and regulation of all returned men unemployed. May question of Federal grant be reconsidered? Kindly advise to A. M. Hunter, vice-president of the Army and Navy Veterans."

FARMERS GAVE VIEWS ON THE TARIFF

Removal of Duties on Implements Urged on Commission at Montreal

Montreal, Nov. 17.—(Canadian Press)—For the first time since the Tariff Commission has worked in the Province of Quebec, the United Farmers of this province were represented before the Commission here yesterday afternoon, when A. H. Clement, president of the United Farmers of Quebec, presented a document in French, setting forth that there were thirty per cent. fewer farmers in the Province of Quebec in 1920 than in 1881. He attributed this to migration to the towns and cities. The memorandum further set forth that there was a migration from this province of thousands of farmers to Vermont, Maine and New Hampshire, all being farmers anxious to get better conditions, a better market and cheaper agricultural implements and other supplies.

To prevent this, the United Farmers proposed abolition of duties on agricultural implements and other machines farmers had to use. The price of agricultural implements had almost doubled within five years.

The suggestion was made that a direct tax be placed on undeveloped natural resources and lands held for speculation. A further income tax based on degrees of wealth and increase in succession duties and a tax on the profits of industrial corporations also was suggested.

Preference.

D. W. Weller, president of the Canadian Association of British Manufacturers, presented a statement for that organization, in which, while approving the protective tariff, he urged a substantial increase of the British preference to encourage imperial trade, and pointed out that goods imported from Great Britain gave large business to Canadian railways and shippings. The Association asked readjustment of duties on aniline dyes, aluminum, paints, firebrick (not made in Canada) and biscuits.

COMPULSORY LOAN IN QUEENSLAND

London, Nov. 17.—Hon. E. C. Theodore, Premier of Queensland, Australia, has stated that the American loan offer was at from 9½ to 13 per cent, and as negotiations in England had little better results, it had been determined to raise money for development locally, by compulsion, if necessary.

Premier Theodore recently visited London for the purpose of raising a loan there, but owing to the action of the Queensland Government in passing an act which violated the pastoral leases were held, he found it impossible to secure the co-operation of any of the London financial houses. The loan is to the amount of £2,000,000. Following the failure of the Premier to raise this loan in England, it would appear from the foregoing that attempts to float the loan had been made in the United States.

A NEW TORONTO DEPUTY MAGISTRATE

Toronto, Ont., Nov. 17.—"Legal lore is a curse to a police magistrate," said Major Brunton, magistrate of the County of York, to the Government Public Service Commission. About the same time the Ontario Government announced the appointment as first Deputy Magistrate of the City of Toronto, of J. Edmund Jones, a lawyer of many years standing. However, Mr. Jones is also a prominent leader of young men, having founded the Aura Lee Club of Toronto, whose members are scattered all over Canada. He is one of the best known laymen in the Anglican Church, being one of the committee responsible for the present Hymnal.

ONTARIO TEMPERANCE ACT CONDEMNED

Toronto, Nov. 17.—The Anglican Bishop of Huron roundly condemns the Ontario Temperance Act.

"I feel that it is regrettable," said the Bishop, "that a law should ever have been placed upon the statute books of this province which impels a large section of the people to violate its provisions without feeling a sense of wrong-doing."

PILES

Are Generally Caused by

CONSTIPATION

There are few, if any, complaints more common than hemorrhoids, or piles, as they are commonly called and scarcely any which cause more trouble, annoyance and misery.

Ninety per cent are troubled with them at some time or other, owing to allowing the bowels to become in a constipated condition.

Piles are classed under three headings, i. e. itching, bleeding and protruding, and the excruciating pains which accompany them cause misery which is beyond description.

Ointment and suppositories may help and relieve for a while, but to get rid of them, it is necessary to have a free, easy and natural motion of the bowels, at least once or twice a day, and by doing this the cause will be quickly removed.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills regulate the flow of bile to act properly on the liver and bowels, thus removing the constipation and all its allied troubles.

They contain no calomel or drastic mineral ingredients, being purely vegetable. They are small and easy to take, and do not gripe, weaken or sicken.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c. a vial at all druggists or dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

"Head Feels Fine Breathe Freely Now"

Improved My Voice, Strengthened My Throat, Cured Me of Hawking and Spitting.

Miss Emma E. Norton Gives Great Praise to "Catarrhozone."

"I just wish I had known years ago about the wonderful effect of CATARRHOZONE," writes Miss Norton, from her home in Georgetown. "My nose and throat were continually stopped up, and I was seldom free from a gag in the throat. I coughed and hawked and often at night couldn't sleep. Just a few breaths from a Catarrhozone inhaler and my head was cleared right up. My throat trouble is now well and I haven't a single vestige of catarrh. Catarrhozone made a perfect cure."

As the only way to reach catarrh is by inhaling medicated air, it follows that the healing balsams of Catarrhozone can't fail to cure. It is a purely vegetable antiseptic—soothes and heals wherever it goes.

The germ-killing vapor is inhaled at the mouth and instantly spreads through all the breathing organs. Every case of bronchitis and catarrh is rooted out, and such health and strength is imparted that these troubles never again return.

Complete outfit, sufficient for 2 months use, price $1.00, including the inhaler and liquid for filling; smaller trial sizes 25c. and 50c., all druggists and storekeepers, or The Catarrhozone Co., Buffalo, N. Y., and Kingston, Canada.

TRAPPERS AT WORK ON THE ISLAND

Cowichan Lake, Nov. 17.—"Ken" Gillespie towed Mr. and Mrs. Simpson's houseboat up to Shaw Creek last week, where they intend spending the Winter months trapping. It is reported they have already got their trap line out and have snared a few martin.

K. Gillespie, who has his traps out at Robinson, has already two fine skins to his credit.

On Sunday afternoon, G. K. Gillespie, with his launch "The Merry Widow," brought to the foot of the lake the ten timber cruisers who came from Portland about three weeks ago and had been here ever since going over the timber at Gordon Bay, Bear Lake and Robinson River. After spending the night at the Riverside Inn, they left for the falls, where they are continuing their cruising.

Shot Bear.

Jack Long, who motored up from Chemanius on Saturday, got a fine bear at Spratt's, near the Cowichan River.

Among those who availed themselves of the pleasure of attending performances of 'Chu Chin Chow" in Victoria last week were: Mr. and Mrs. George Stelly, Mrs. George Bishop, Mrs. F. Green, Mrs. A. Green and Mrs. E. Lomas.

The Conservative candidate, G. A. Cheeke, of Cobble Hill, will hold a meeting at the Cowichan Lake Schoolhouse on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

K. Duncan, of Duncan, Independent candidate, also will shortly hold a meeting here, but the date has not been decided upon yet.

BRITISH TRADE AND SOVIET RUSSIA

London, Nov. 17.—In the House of Commons yesterday, Rt. Hon. Andrew Bonar Law said he hoped that withing a week Soviet Russia would have so far fulfilled the conditions upon which Great Britain would base resumption of trade negotiations as to enable him to make a statement. One of these conditions was the release of the British prisoners in Russia. He deprecated the delay in the negotiations but said this was not Great Britain's fault, being due to the delay of the Rusians in releasing the British prisoners.

ARTHUR ELLIS ON RANCH IN B. C.

Montreal, Nov. 17.—Arthur Ellis, Canadian Government hangman, who has officiated in many cities between the two coasts, has "chucked up" his "side line" as an inspector at the Government liquor vendor's here, and will return to his fruit farm and horse ranch at Golden, B. C., after he has attended to the execution of a couple of death sentences in the East next month. Ellis declared that he was "sick of" the inspector job, which, it seems, became uncomfortably untenable after the vendor's customers had discovered that he was the same Ellis who conducted a recent hanging at a nearby jail.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.

RENTALS HIGH IN WINDSOR, ONT.

Windsor, Ont., Nov. 17.—This city has other troubles than liquor running. A woman head of a household of ten people visited the City Hall and complained that she had to pay $70 per month for a basement floor, or $50 a month if she condescended to do the landlady's washing. The Mayor has been asked to make a probe.

NO APPEAL MADE.

London, Nov. 17.—A report that the Haitien Government had requested Great Britain to intervene with regard to the alleged killing of Haitiens by American marines was raised in the House of Commons yesterday and brought a reply from Cecil B. Harmsworth, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, that no request for intervention had been received by Great Britain from or on behalf of Haiti.

Mr. Harmsworth said he was making inquiries regarding the statement of an American journalist to the effect that Haiti had protested to Great Britain, and that he had requested this journalist to end such practices.

THE PUBLIC ACCOUNTS.

The Provincial Minister of Finance deserves public approval for introducing in his administration a good many excellent innovations, not the least important of which is a new form of preparation of the Public Accounts, showing the expenditure of each Department as a separate unit.

A few quotations from leading newspapers and financial journals regarding our new system of public accounts will be of interest. The Toronto Globe of February 18, said: "The Government of British Columbia has set a good example to other Governments by the full, clear and complete manner in which it has published its public accounts for the last fiscal year."

This is what The Financial Post had to say: "The first annual statement of public accounts of any Canadian Government—Federal or Provincial—to be issued with revenue and expenditures of each department of the Government segregated under one heading, and with corresponding tables showing actual and estimated revenue and expenditures in each item side by side was tabled in the British Columbia Legislature last week. This business-like form of presenting the public accounts is the culmination of a series of important improvements in Government auditing that have characterized the accounts and estimates of that Coast Province during the past two or three years."

The Canadian Municipal Journal of February 1, remarked: "As a model in efficiency and compilation the report is worth following, not only by other provinces, but by the municipalities."

The public accounts now form a source of interest and information. In Mr. Bowser's day they were a Chinese puzzle and a source of irritation to their readers as well as a waste of good money.

ACTION WANTED.

It should not take the Prime Minister of Canada very long to make up his mind about the course he proposes to take to provide work for the hundreds of returned men who are out of employment in this Province. The resolution forwarded to him by the Provincial Returned Soldiers' Commission emphasizes but by no means exaggerates conditions which have been brought about by the influx of something like seventeen thousand returned men who did not enlist in this Province but who elected to take their discharge here after a journey across the country at the expense of the Dominion Government. Very naturally British Columbia does not discourage additions to her population; but the case of the returned man who is not able in many instances to follow his original calling is a different matter, especially when he numbers seventeen thousand in excess of those to whom primary consideration has been given. The responsibility, therefore, rests with the federal authorities and it should be the duty of the Prime Minister and his colleagues to develop a programme of work and assistance such as may be adapted to immediate needs.

TO BE ANOTHER FIRST.

One British Columbia industry is coming into its own in these days of paper famine.

This Province, according to a Government report, is now producing enough newsprint to supply all Canada, which has an annual consumption of 120,000 tons. Ten years ago not even a ton of pulp was manufactured here. Last year the value of pulpwood products was $12,554,257. The sum of $50,000,000 invested in the industry is the third greatest among the amounts invested in the Provinces of Canada. Seven plants are now operating here.

Foreign money is sent into this Province for practically all of this output, which is exported, as British Columbia newspapers use only an infinitesimal part of it. The entire production of one plant goes to Japan. Australia takes 20,000 tons a year and the United States all it can get.

The sudden success and expansion of the pulp and paper industry here are bringing the Province to the attention of capitalists in Eastern Canada, the United States and Europe. They are now looking to the great pulpwood forests in various sections. As British Columbia possesses 285,370,000 of the estimated 370,370,000 cords of pulpwood in Western Canada and its timber yields the greatest average of pulp to a cord, it will not be long before this Province will rank first in paper production for the whole North American continent.

MORE GAS.

While the League of Nations was making its bow to civilization on Monday the British Prime Minister was forced to admit in the House of Commons that the subject of chemical warfare had been under consideration by the Government for the last year. Reference to the question arose out of the inquisitiveness of a private member who voiced his objection to the procedure adopted by the War Office in its request to the universities of the country to undertake research towards the development of chemical warfare for both offensive and defensive purposes. The questioner asked how the Government expected to reconcile an order of this kind with that article in the Treaty of Versailles under which such practices were prohibited. It is quite true, of course, that until the member states of the League definitely renounce their rights to set the world ablaze immediately an international dispute obtrudes itself each country will take every precaution necessary to protect its fighting forces. The fact remains, however, that as long as the various pictorial journals of the great nations of the world continue to portray the "greatest battleship afloat," the "most powerful explosive known," and the "latest word in fighting aircraft," the establishment of an international brotherhood is not made easier.

25,000 POLICEMEN.

While Mr. Bowser is telling the voters of this Province what a wicked man the Attorney-General is and how he has failed to enforce the British Columbia Prohibition Act it is interesting to hark back to the debates upon this particular measure which took place just before the dissolution of the Legislature in 1916. During one of the discussions Mr. H. B. Thomson—a stalwart supporter of the then Premier and one of the Conservative members for this city—warned Mr. Bowser that by the time the Act was in force an army of twenty-five thousand policemen would be required to carry out its provisions. The accuracy of the prediction needs no emphasis. Just how far public opinion was against the former law—irrespective of personal predilections, and without regard to the principle involved—was demonstrated by the verdict given by the electorate on October 20. Therefore, will any fair-minded individual blame the Attorney-General for his inability to enforce a law which more than fifty per cent. of the population failed to support? We are of the opinion that the electorate as a whole appreciates the fact that the first law officer of the Crown in this or any other Province must depend upon the people to obey as well as the authorities to enforce such laws as it is his duty to administer. No law to which a majority of the people is antagonistic is capable of proper enforcement.

NOTE AND COMMENT

General Wrangel's Government was recognized by France and not by Great Britain. The sooner the two nations come to some sort of an arrangement for common action towards Russia the better it will be for all concerned. Recognition of the Bolshevik Ministry is not approval, and if recognition will curb the practices of Lenine and Co. it ought to be worth the experiment.

Now that Canon Hinchliffe and Mr. Sutherland have qualified their support to Mr. Bowser what will Mr. Northcott and Mr. Stewart do?

According to the political correspondent of The London Daily Star the Irish situation may soon take a turn for the better. The prediction is fairly safe; all turns for the worse are about exhausted.

Lieut.-Col. Winsby says when he looks on the record of the Oliver Administration he has no apology to offer because he supports the Government as a returned citizen and a Liberal. The Colonel is in good company.

Six thousand persons are unemployed in the city of Vancouver. Mr. Meighen's promise of "co-operation with the Provincial Government" should be forthcoming and a remedy found immediately.

The current issue of The Labor Gazette contains the glad tidings that the cost of the weekly family budget of staple foods has declined twelve cents. Nearly enough for an extra loaf!

Is it not somewhat funny to hear Bowser supporters urging the electors to restore the "good old times" prior to 1916, with the P. G. E., Kitsilano Reserve and Dominion Trust scandals, the annual accumulation of deficits, the alienation of our resources so that the speculator might "have his chance," to quote Mr. Bowser, and a few other features of that character?

OTHER PAPERS' VIEWS

Mr. MEIGHEN IN WINNIPEG

(Grain Growers Guide.)

If it was the intention of Premier Meighen when he planned his Western tour to carry the war into the enemy's camp, he forgot all about it when he faced a decidedly hostile audience in the Board of Trade Auditorium, in Winnipeg, last week. Premier Meighen has stated time and again that the real enemy of the present administration is the New National Policy Party, the Farmers' Party, and the salient feature of his speeches in the east was the vicious attacks he made on that party. He has called the Farmers' platform "destructionist," and the farmers "free wreckers"; he has intimated that they are linked up with "seditionists" and advocates of violence, and has maintained that they are out deliberately to create unrest that they may profit by it. At Strafordville, in East Elgin, where a government candidate is trying to get the farmers' vote, Mr. Meighen, in a recent speech, made a lame effort to explain these violent denunciations of the farmers and their political organization, and when he comes West his truculence has so far yielded to the pressure of political necessity that he deems it the part of prudence to ignore what he has himself called "the most formidable antagonist of the present administration."

SAME OLD HUMAN NATURE

(The Brooylyn Eagle.)

Civilization hasn't progressed much in a century. A hundred years ago Manchester spinners were smashing the spinning-jennies to keep up wages. Now planters are burning cotton gins to keep up the price of cotton. The most provoking pessimist we know is the muse of history.

WHERE IT STARTED

BANDS

(Copyright, 1920, By The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

The origin of the band was the association or guild of pipers and trumpeters organized in the Thirteenth Century, collected as the guild of St. Nicholas in 1228. These bands were regulated by law as to the number of instrument they could play, this depending on the rank of the person for whom they were performing. Brass bands were originally intended for churches, but soon grew away from them and became popular.

WHY

DOES WATER BUBBLE WHEN IT BOILS?

(Copyright, 1920, By The Wheel Syndicate, Inc.)

Water, it should be remembered, is not always liquid, though this is the form in which we are accustomed to think of it. But the application of cold will produce solid water—or ice, just as the application of heat will transform it into gaseous water or vapor.

This latter action takes place gradually, however, except in the case of a very small amount of water and even then the transformation is not instantaneous, though it may appear to be so. The application of the heat changes the water nearest to it into vapor, and this, being lighter than the surrounding liquid, struggles to reach the surface. In fact, it "bubbles" its way to the top precisely as if we were to force air into the water from a pipe below the surface. If heat is applied sufficiently long, the water will, of course, "boil away"—which is only another way of saying that the entire substance has been transformed into gas or vapor, which, in turn, is taken up by the surrounding air.

by Mr. Bell's supporters, but there was no semblance of "Packed Convention," it was the most democratic, enthusiastic, representative and harmonious Convention ever held here. This is admitted on all sides.

Mr. Bell is ill-advised in making the statement regarding "Bunch who hollers and hoot" because there were not more than fifty at the Convention who had not supported him in the general election, and no doubt they feel that all the "Principles" are not conserved in one individual.

If Mr. Bell will peruse his nomination papers he will find that some of these people were working a propaganda against him when they thought he was to be on our ticket, but the moment he was not selected they found that he was a very good fellow. In conclusion I would say that Mr. Bell may inspect the names of those at Convention if he desires.

To Be Active Evening.

All parties fighting in the present campaign will be active to-night. The Government candidates will hold their first ward meeting in the Oaklands School at eight o'clock, Thomas Walker presiding. Three of the four candidates—Hon. John Hart, H. C. Hall and J. B. Clearihue—will speak. A musical programme has been arranged. A large audience of people living in the Oaklands district, it is expected, will be present.

No other Government meetings will be held until Saturday, one gathering scheduled for an earlier date having been postponed in order that the attendance at the police ball might not be affected.

Mrs. A. T. Watt, O.B.E., a lady prominent in local politics, will speak at the Government meeting to be held in the Princess Theatre next Tuesday, it was announced this morning.

Other parties are holding meetings in the city and in adjoining municipalities this evening, as set out elsewhere in this issue.

A Misunderstanding.

Large numbers of women in the city are laboring under some delusion regarding their votes at the coming election, according to information received by campaign managers. It is still thought by some ladies that they are not entitled to vote if they already have voted on the liquor plebiscite. This, of course, is just the opposite of the facts. All persons who voted on the liquor question, it is pointed out, are entitled to vote at the election. The officials in charge of the Government campaign headquarters in the Arcade Building will be happy to inform anyone in doubt whether he or she is entitled to vote.

NATIONAL COUNCIL TO PAY PART OF FEES FOR VETERANS

Proposal Will Aid Vocational Training of Returned Men

Any veteran who wants a course of instruction along some line which he has not been able to get through the S. C. R. or who may wish to supplement the instruction he has already received by further study, may do so through an arrangement with the National Council Y.M.C.A. which has set aside a sum of money to provide this opportunity for returned men. If a returned man wishes to take any of the educational classes at any Y.M.C.A the National Council will pay all his fees. All he is required to do is to pay 25 per cent. of the fees when he enrolls as an evidence of good faith and determination, which will be refunded to him when he completes 75% of the course.

If he should want to take a course not provided by a local Y.M.C.A. or if it is not convenient for him to attend these classes, he can take a correspondence course with the United Y.M.C.A. Schools on any subject he may desire and the National Council Y.M.C.A. will pay 75% of his fees. These courses are the equal of any and inasmuch as they are not conducted for profit are cheaper than others. There are scores of courses offered, some of the chief departments being commerce, mathematics, engineering, electricity, drawing, agriculture and all general culture subjects.

The fund available for this educational service to returned men is comparatively small considering the number of men who might take the opportunity offered. It is therefore important that those who wish to take it up should do so promptly.

SAGE AND SULPHUR DARKENS GRAY HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Restore Color, Gloss and Attractiveness.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is mussy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

TO-DAY'S JEWELS

The ruby, which is to-day's talismanic gem, is a perfect protection against danger. It is believed by the ancients that those who wore a ruby could travel anywhere with perfect safety, pass through fire and flood unharmed, and come off victorious in any controversy. To receive these blessings, however, the gem must be worn on the left side.

Working in sympathy with the ruby is the natal stone for to-day—the cat's eye. It, too, has the power to allay all jinx of misfortune. But if it is worn by any except those whose birth anniversary this is, it is believed to cause the loss of valued friends.

According to Oriental superstition, purple is the lucky color to-day. To wear it is believed to acquire the confidence and esteem of influential people.

The mignonette is to-day's significant flower. It is believed to make all occasions over which it presides memorable for beauty and sweetness.

MISS AGNES SLACK OF WORLD'S W.C.T.U. COMING SATURDAY

Miss Agnes Banford Slack, who for the past twenty-five years has been honorary secretary of the World's W.C.T.U. is in Canada at the special request of the Countess of Carlisle, head of the world movement, and will arrive in Victoria on Saturday. She will speak at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church on Sunday, and on Monday evening will address a mas meeting at the Metropolitan Church. On Tuesday, Miss Slack will be the guest of honor at an informal reception to be given by the Women's Canadian Club at the Empress Hotel.

Miss Slack is bringing a message of greeting to the Women of Canada from the Old Country. During her work as secretary of the World's W. C.T.U. she has visited almost every part of the world. In South Africa she was the guest of the late Dr. Jameson, at the former home of Cecil Rhodes, and while in India she was the guest of the then Viceroy and Lady Minto.

After leaving Victoria Miss Slack will proceed to Los Angeles where she will commence a speaking tour of the United States.

CIVIL SERVANTS EXCELLENT HOSTS AT OPENING DANCE

Over two hundred guests, including several of the Deputy Ministers, attended the very enjoyable dance at the Alexandra Club last evening, when the Provincial Civil Service Association gave their first dance of the Winter series. Civil Servants make proverbially good hosts, and the committee in charge had spared no effort to ensure the comfort and pleasure of the guests. For those who preferred to watch rather than participate in the dancing, card tables were arranged in the balcony.

An alluring programme of the most up-to-date dance numbers was given by Heaton's orchestra, the demand for encores being so insistent that the programme was prolonged until two a.m. Shortly after eleven o'clock a delicious supper was served in the lower cafe under the capable direction of Percy Payne. The arrangements for the affair reflected much credit to the committee, of which Frank Sehl was the convener, assisted by Miss Jagers, Miss Rickaby, Messrs. O. Barton, Beilby and Hourston.

WILL SELL FAMOUS GOBELIN TAPESTRIES

London, Nov. 16.—It is announced that the Duke of Rutland is prepared to sell his famous set of Don Quixote Gobelin tapestries, worth, it is estimated, £200,000.

The tapestries, which are in the Regent's Room at Belvoir Castle, near Grantham, Lincs., were made specially for Louis XV. at the famous factory in the Faubourg St. Marcel, Paris.

"They have been on sale tentatively for some little while," the Duchess of Rutland told a press representative. "Several offers have been made for them, but they are such a perfect set that a high price must necessarily be set upon them. Some idea of their value may be gathered from the fact that Pierpont Morgan paid £90,000 for four Gobelins, not so good as these.

"How they came into possession of our family makes a romantic story. In 1799 John Henry, the fifth Duke of Rutland, married the Lady Elizabeth Howard, daughter of the fifth Earl of Carlisle. Part of their honeymoon they spent in Paris, and while there the duke saw the tapestries and managed to buy them."

JESSIE.

Curiously enough, Jessie is really said to be the diminutive for Janet, though it is now considered a separate name and from it Shakespeare probably named his Jessica, "His most sweet Jewess." It has been a favorite with royalty and many of the queens of early times were so called.

But misfortune has usually attended the royal ladies who bore this name, while the Jesses, the masculine counterparts, have had more auspicious careers. Twice, a Giovanna, or Jessica, reigned in Naples in disgrace and misery and her Spanish counterpart, Juana la Loca of Castile, went through a royal seige of melancholy madness.

Two heroines were so called; Jeanne of Flanders; or Jannedik la Flamm, as the Bretons called her, and the heroine of Henbonne, and the much more noble Jeanne la Pucelle of Orleans. Two saints gave Jessie and her derivatives a flavor of sanctity—Jeanne de Valois, daughter of Louis XI., and discarded wife of Louis XII., and foundress of the Annoncia des, and Jeanne Francois de Chantel, the disciple of St. Francis de Sales.

Whether Shakespeare's lovely heroine of the "Merchant of Venice" was an improvement upon Jessie as short for Janet, or was really the feminine of Jesse, the father of David, is open to conjecture. However, it may be, Jessie signifies "grace of the Lord."

Her talismanic gem is the amethyst which preserves it's wearer from contagion and protects soldiers from harm in battle. It has a sobering effect upon one of light or frivolous mind. Saturday is Jessie's lucky day and 4 her lucky number. The primrose is her flower.

Jessie has always been a favorite name with the poets, especially the Scottish poets. Robert Burns contributed one of the most charming of lyrics written to her:

"Oh fresh is the rose in the gay dewy morning,
And sweet is the lily at evening close;
But in the fair presence o' lovely young Jessie,
Unseen is the lily, unheeded the rose."

Ministering Circle.—Mrs. H. A. S. Morley presided at the meeting of the Ministering Circle of King's Daughters, held in the Hibben-Bone Block yesterday afternoon. Donations were voted to the Travelers' Aid of the Y. W. C. A., to the Boy Scouts, and a cheque for $25 was sent to the Protestant Orphans' Home together with five new pinafores. A number of local cases have been visited, and twelve nightshirts and six nightgowns have been made for the King's Daughters' Hospital at Duncan. The members also decided to send a box of Christmas cheer to the soldier patients at Tranquille. Mrs. S. H. Harvie and Mrs. William Bone served refreshments while Mrs. Fern reported for the sewing committee. A box which was sent to the Victoria soldiers at the Tranquille Sanatorium was reported by Mrs. Harvie.

DESCRIBED SOCIAL WELFARE WORK AS SEEN IN ENGLAND

Mrs. Schofield Appeals to Women's Canadian Club to Study Problems

Delightful little vignettes of "the things that are more worth while," as they are undertaken in England, were vividly presented by Mrs. C. de V. Schofield in the course of an entertaining and instructive address before the Women's Canadian Club yesterday afternoon. Dividing her talk into three heads: immigration, educational work and social welfare work, the speaker dealt with the steps being taken in the Old Country along these lines, commending the work which was being carried on by the women of England in the face of great odds.

Interest In B. C.

The question of immigration had been forcibly brought home to her during her sojourn in London, where she daily noted knots of interested people gathered about British Columbia House and the C.P.R. offices. From enquiry she had found that the greatest interest was evinced by intending emigrants in three districts in British Columbia: Vancouver Island, the Okanagan Valley and the Fraser Valley. In this connection Mrs. Schofield expressed the hope that steps would be taken to disseminate correct information about Canada, as she came in contact with much ignorance in this matter.

Under Immigration Law

Deploring the new immigration law of the Dominion, Mrs. Schofield pointed out the unfairness of a system which permitted immigrants to arrive on this side only to be turned back because of mental or physical unfitness. She urged the women to direct their energies to the obtaining of the appointment in Liverpool and other ports of departure of competent psychiatrists and doctors, so that intending immigrants could be examined before leaving the Old Country, and thus avoid the heartbreaking disappointment and expense incurred in a fruitless journey.

On her journey to and from England she noted with pleasure the splendid type of immigrant coming to Canada, all of whom had money, and Mrs. Schofield commended the work of the women conductresses who, as officials of the Canadian Government, saw to the well-being of these immigrants.

Fisher Education Bill

Her studies of the education! system in England led Mrs. Schofield to warmly praise the measures taken for the care of the mentally deficient in special schools. She had been privileged to see the Right Hon. H. A. L. Fisher, British Minister of Education, whose splendid bill would mark a new era in education, with its proposed system of nursery schools, and special schools for subnormal children. "It is really making for social and spiritual betterment of the people" declared Mrs. Schofield, and she urged the members to study the bill, which was being eagerly anticipated by principals and school teachers, and all associated with education in England.

The Human Touch.

Describing her visits to schools in London and in Lancashire, the speaker deplored the presence of the "half-timers" in the northern schools—the children who gave half of their time in the mills and half in school. The human touch in the schools appealed to Mrs. Schofield. In the Lancashire schools the children wore clogs and one enterprising teacher had appealed to the mothers for their old felt hats, and out of them had made shoes for the little tots. At one school in the north she had been much touched when the little ones stood up and sang "The Maple Leaf."

On her return to Canada she and her two little girls had collected a number of maple leaves in Ontario, in all the glory of their Autumn coloring, and after pressing and waxing them, had sent them to the school. Since her return to Victoria she had received a letter of thanks from every child in the school.

Child welfare Centres.

Graphically interesting was the account of her visit to the social and child welfare centres and the creches in London: At St. Bartholomew's Hospital she had heard a splendid talk by Countess Ferrers on the charity organizations; in North Islington, St. Pancras, and at Highgate she had visited institutions where babies and little children were receiving care and the mothers were being instructed in proper feeding and care of their infants. There were 200 of such centres in London.

"I was shocked to realise that although the whole population of Canada is about the same as that of London, our infant mortality is double that of the great metropolis, where they have to combat the conditions of over-crowding and lack of air space," said Mrs. Schofield. The reason was that experts in England had realized the gravity of the infant mortality rate and had adopted stringent measures for the prevention of disease and the education of the mothers, with splendid results.

Before leaving London, Mrs. Schofield spent four days as the guest of Dr. Mary Scharlieb, the noted surgeon who at seventy-five years of age is acknowledged to be the greatest woman doctor of the day, and who still conducts major operations.

Must Study Questions.

In summing up her observations Mrs. Schofield appealed to the women of Canada to study these great questions of immigration, educational and social welfare work. "Here we have so much to learn and know so little compared to those experts in England. England may seem slow to us, but when she makes progress she never goes back. It is up to Canada and Canadian women to keep themselves informed on these great matters, especially along the lines of preventive and educational work."

Mrs. Adams Beck moved, and Mrs. Hyndman seconded, the vote of thanks to the speaker, Mrs. Pankhurst adding her support by appealing to the women to "benefit by the experience of the older countries and never be satisfied with anything but the best, and never rest content with anything lower than the highest."

During the afternoon Mrs. Harry Lasenby delighted the meeting with her solos.

SILVER TEA SUCCESS

The silver tea, which was held by the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Grand Army of United Veterans on Tuesday afternoon at Christ Church Cathedral school room, was very successful. It was declared open by the Very Rev. Dean Quainton, who spoke in a very encouraging manner to the assemblage. The guests were received by Mrs. Hatcher, Mrs. Durim and Mrs. Gadsen. Refreshments were convened by Mrs. Grant and Mrs. Foster, the tables being prettily decorated with red carnations. During the afternoon a very pleasing programme was rendered. Vocal solos were contributed by Mrs. Durim, Mrs. Pownall and Mrs. Grant, accompanied by Mrs. Ridgard, who also rendered piano solos; in addition Miss Warfield sang, with Mr. McKenzie at the piano. For the success of the afternoon, great credit is due to Mrs. S. McVie and Mrs. Craigdallie who jointly officiated at the home-cooking stall.

W. E. PEIRCE STATES IDEALS OF PARTY

Federated Labor Party Opens Campaign; Re-construction of Society

The old Liberal and Conservative parties are a thing of the past, and the choice before the electors at the December election will be between the "old order which produced the war, and the new order which is within our grasp right now," W. E. Peirce declared last night when a fair-sized and appreciate audience greeted the Federated Labor Party candidates at the Crystal Theatre.

W. E. Peirce, in opening the present election campaign, appealed to his supporters to conduct the fight in a perfectly fair manner. He would rather loose in a fair fight than win in a foul one, he said. He had noticed that at election times all the candidates invariably declared themselves to be "friends of the working man." He suggested that while that might be perfectly true, it was a good deal safer to vote for the "working man himself."

No Flag Waving.

It was not a fight in which any party could do any flag waving, and put forward the claims of patriotism, he went on.

Must Obey Mandate.

It was not a choice, he added, between prohibition and Government control. That question had already been settled by the recent plebiscite. Whoever was sent to the House had a mandate from the people which must be obeyed. He ridiculed the idea, which had been put forward, that the profits of the liquor business should be utilized in building playgrounds and golf links. The Federated Labor Party took the stand that whatever measure of Government control was passed it should provide for two things—the absolute purity of the liquor and its sale at cost, plus only overhead charges.

Neither was the election a question of morals, Mr. Peirce asserted. While it was certainly an advantage to have good moral men in the House, that in itself was not sufficient. It is also necessary that they should understand the underlying causes of the unrest that existed and the means that must be taken to eliminate them.

Choice Between Old and New.

The "choice before us," said the speaker, is a choice between the 'old order' that produced the war with its 20,000,000 casualties and the 'new order' which is within our grasp right now if we are only willing to make the sacrifices necessary to secure it."

Mr. Peirce then gave a demonstration in figures, claiming the fallacy of the "produce and save" idea.

His Candidacy.

Mr. Peirce stated that in running as a candidate for Victoria, he wanted the votes of everyone who was looking for the "new order." The Federated Labor Party platform began with the unemployed question. He stood for the principle that it is the duty of the State to provide productive employment for all men and women under strictly trade union principles. It stood for a national banking system so that control of money could be taken out of the hands of private concerns.

With these two questions settled, he claimed that all other problems would become comparatively easy to settle, as men and women would be free to think and act without fear of losing their jobs.

Electors Will Have Resignation.

He said that before election day his resignation would be in the hands of the party, just as Mr. Barnard's had been, so that he could be recalled just as soon as it was decided he was not "playing the game." He was also willing if elected to accept as his salary the ordinary wage of a skilled mechanic. Anything above that should be turned over to the party to be used for propaganda work.

His reason for making that suggestion was that experience has shown that as soon as a man's income puts him on "easy street" he lost touch with the working class movement.

J. D. McDonald followed, speaking briefly on the platform and aims of the Federated Labor Party. As Mr. Peirce had spoken at length he said he would reserve what he had to say until the next meeting, which would be on Friday.

REV. DR. MUNRO'S BIBLE CONFERENCE STRICTLY UNDENOMINATIONAL

"If the Bible lovers of Victoria knew the calibre of the man, and the power and charm of his message, there would not be standing room in the Conference Church for the people who would wish to attend," is the way in which Rev. Dr. Maclean, pastor of the St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Victoria West, describes the Rev. Donald Duncan Munro, who is this week conducting a Bible conference at the church.

The meetings, although held in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, are strictly undenominational. Donald Munro is a Baptist minister who, owing to the constant demand upon his time for Bible teaching at the largest conferences, was led to devote himself wholly to this special work. "No church organization has any strings on this able expositor and fearless preacher. He is entirely free," says Dr. Maclean.

"Genial and brotherly Munro, although unflinching in his loyalty to the truth, and fearless in denunciation, is kindly affectioned towards all men. His contention is not with men, but with corrupt systems and destructive doctrine. His exposition of the Epistle to the Galatians at last night's meeting held the audience spell bound for over an hour."

Afternoon meetings will be held at 3 o'clock, and evening meetings at 8 o'clock, and prayer at 7.30 p. m. every day this week except Saturday.

Society For the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals in Annual Session

Reference was made at the annual meeting of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty of Animals, held last evening, to the effort being made by the Society to secure the establishment of macadam roads alongside the hard surface paving in Saanich, which President Sherwood stated would be understood, be taken in hand this Winter.

New Officers.

Officers chosen were:

President—M. Harbord (Mr. Sherwood declining the position).

Vice-President—A. R. Sherwood and G. T. Maurice.

Honorary Treasurer—L. J. Braden.

Honorary Secretary—W. B. Pearse.

Committee — Messrs. Bass, Crane, Shanks, Kitto, Lyall, W. Downes, Rev. William Stevenson, R. Hunter and R. T. Williams (one ex-officio).

Counsel—Lindley Crease, K.C.

Veterinary Surgeons—Dr. Hamilton, with seat on board; Drs. H. Keown and H. Brown.

Inspector Pro Tem—G. T. Maurice.

The Lieutenant-Governor continues as patron.

President's Report.

A. R. Sherwood, the retiring president, reported that fair progress had been made during the past twelve months. He stated that the humane week in May had been quite successful, and several new members had been secured. He paid a fitting tribute to Miss Dora Kitto's work as acting secretary during the ill health of W. B. Pearse, the secretary. To fill vacancies on the committee Mrs. Neville Smith and Mr. Hunter were added to the committee.

Mr. Sherwood explained the circumstances with regard to a S.P.A.C. inspector, and the police prosecutions inaugurated. Mr. Sherwood alluded to the work of the Executive Committee, whose members had been zealous in the discharge of their duties.

Annual Report.

A very interesting report of the work of society was given by Miss Kitto it being the 24th of that character, the Society having been founded in February, 1895.

"Such a society," the report stated, "must be regarded as a distinct asset to the economic and moral well-being of the community, and it is therefore to be regretted that its support is confined to a comparatively small number of kind-hearted and far-seeing residents. From a town of Victoria's size and wealth ample funds should be forthcoming to enable this society to carry on its good work in a thoroughly efficient and well-organized manner."

The report alluded to the improved conditions at the Beacon Hill Zoo, but stated that "some of the cages are small and sunless." It also recorded the progress of the Jack London Club, with 500 members here.

"So far," continued the report, "Victoria fails to fall in line with other cities of her size and capabilities in providing funds for proper office accommodation, lethal chambers, shelters and other necessities. By the courtesy of the Edmonton shelter, maintained in London by Our Dumb Friends League, we are the recipients of a lethal box and bag for the painless destruction of small animals."

Reference is made to the complaint to the Soldiers' Settlement Board regarding the starving of cattle kept on lands too small to supply them with the proper amount of food." The Board has thanked the society for its information.

The necessity of humane education in the schools was also urged in the report.

Thanks are conveyed to Miss Saunders for collections made, and use for her studio for meetings, G. T. Maurice for voluntary inspections for two and a half months, the Arion Club for a concert in Humane Week, the clergy who observed Animal Sunday, C. L. Harrison, city prosecutor, Curtis Sampson, as honorary auditor, the Press, Drs. Hamilton and Keown, theatre managers, the Chiefs of Police in the city and Saanich, and Miss Marian Heming.

Other Reports

G. T. Maurice, the Inspector, stated that the society during the nine months it had an inspector, had dealt with 119 cases, took three into court, and secured two convictions.

The financial statement showed that the total receipts were $1,075.47, including a balance of $235 when the financial year started, and the year closed with a balance in hand of $230.

CITY TO PRINT ITS OWN VOTERS' LISTS

The civic authorities' latest plan for saving money is to print the civic voters' list at the City Hall instead of allowing local printers to do the work. This plan has been finally agreed upon after a good deal of cogitation on the part of the Mayor and aldermen.

The work of printing the lists is to be done on a machine which the city purchased some months ago for the printing of by-laws. It is expected that some $400 will be saved in this way. Ten thousand copies are to be printed.

City Clerk E. W. Bradley and City Solicitor H. S. Pringle will direct the printing operations, to carry on which two expert stenographers will be engaged. The work will be made more difficult by the fact that this year persons purchasing property early in November will be allowed to vote at the January election.

"How old is your baby brother?" asked little Tommy of a playmate. "One year old," replied Johnny. "Ah," exclaimed Tommy, "I've got a dog a year old, and he can walk twice as well as your brother." "Well, so he ought to," replied Johnny; "he's got twice as many legs."

FORECASTS FINE SUCCESS FOR BIG DRIVE FOR BOARD

J. H. Beatty Tells Board of Trade Support Comes From Many Quarters

Vice-President J. H. Beatty this morning reported to the Council of the Board of Trade that the outlook for a great success attending the drive for a wider membership of the Board of Trade was far better than even he had anticipated, and in this he was supported by George L. Warren.

Mr. Beatty said that the closest co-operation was being given by all who had been approached, even men who had been expected to oppose the scheme had, after the expansion plans had been explained, turned around and in open meeting pledged their fullest support.

The Council voted $1,250 towards the financing of the campaign, this being the estimate of the total cost, with a possibility that, should the new members secured be more numerous than the conservative estimates, there will be a handsome refund.

Beaumont Boggs said: "Before going on with this I would like to know whether the name of Board of Trade will be abandoned; if it will be, I for one am opposed to it."

Vice-President Beatty pointed out that the commonly used title of the Board is only a part of the full name, which is Victoria Board of Trade or Chamber of Commerce." He pointed out that any question of a change of name would have to be settled at the first full meeting of the re-organized Board, and that it would be unfair for a minority of the eventual membership to settle any matter which should be decided in the most democratic manner possible.

The Council adopted the draft of an appeal to the general public of the city to become affiliated with the work of the Board, the tenor of this being that every citizen should aid in forwarding the interests of the city and in making the already available machinery of the Board of Trade more efficient and truly representative of the people.

The Council passed a vote of thanks to Messrs. Schwengers and Wilson for the work they had done as a special committee to secure for Victoria equalization of freight rates on the Pacific Great Eastern Railway. President Beckwith said that it had at first appeared to be a hopeless task, but owing to steadily keeping at their task, and to finding some obscure agreement made when the line was first being mooted, the wholesalers of Victoria had now the benefit of a parity with the mainland firms.

A FALSE REPORT FROM IRELAND

London, Nov. 17.—A curious episode occurred in the House of Commons last night. William Adamson, Labor member for Fife, announced that the Labor Party had received a telegram from the Town Clerk of Tipperary saying that Tipperary was being burned by Crown forces, who had cut the fire hose and were preventing the firemen from working by threatening to use their revolvers. Mr. Adamson demanded a discussion.

Sir Hamar Greenwood, Chief Secretary for Ireland, said he had telegraphed Dublin Castle and had received a telephone message from the district inspector at Tipperary that the inspector's men had assisted in extinguishing a fire Monday night and that then (Tuesday) the town was quiet and the story of it being burned was absolutely untrue. Sir Hamar added that this report was characteristic of many unofficial rumors being circulated.

London, Nov. 17.—A dispatch from Dublin said: Three robbers, styling themselves as secret service men, entered a bank there yesterday and escaped with all available cash.

OPPOSITION CANDIDATES BEGIN FIGHT

Sixty-five People Hear Government Assailed For Extravagance

URGE ECONOMY AND A SANE LIQUOR LAW

Opening their campaign in the North Ward School last night, local Opposition candidates in the present election fight, assailed the Oliver Government for its extravagance in public affairs; criticized it for its sweeping taxation; attacked its municipal policy; admitted they had afforded some relief to the returned soldiers but asserted that it had not gone far enough in its efforts; defended the policies and character of the Opposition Leader, W. J. Bowser, K. C., and advocated a sane, reasonable liquor law, economy in administration and the proper development of British Columbia.

About sixty-five people heard the candidates' first campaign speeches and, though there was occasional applause, little enthusiasm was manifested at any stage of the proceedings. Canon Hinchliffe, ex-Mayor Alexander Stewart and Ross Sutherland, three of the candidates, and Senator Barnard and J. J. Shallcross all were heard without interruption. George Miller presided. W. W. Northcott, the fourth Opposition candidate, was unable to be present on account of indisposition.

Too Heavy Taxes.

After declaring that the December election would be one of the most important in the history of the Province Senator Barnard, who was the first speaker, endeavored to show the emptiness of the Government's claim that it was administering the affairs of British Columbia in a businesslike way. The people of British Columbia—approximately 450,000 in number—were called upon to pay fourteen millions into the provincial treasury in addition to municipal and federal taxes, he said. Premier Oliver, stated the Senator, had made much of the fact that this revenue compared favorably with the $6,500,000 received during the last year of the Bowser Government. How had the present Government secured this revenue? he demanded. Simply by "taxing the people out of their boots," he declared, and went on to read a list of the taxes levied, the fees charged and licenses charged. "In fact," he remarked, "if any of you can suggest anything else, that can be taxed don't mention it or else the Government will promptly proceed to tax it too. They'll soon be taxing a man for breathing his last!"

If the Government had been able to reduce the Province's debt or reduce the cost of administration, there might be some excuse for this sweeping taxation but, as a matter of fact, scores of officials had been appointed and commission after commission brought into being. "There is a limit to these things," he asserted, "and that limit has been pretty nearly reached."

High Government Costs.

Senator Barnard quoted figures to show that Ontario, with its 2,500,000 people, was paying but $130,000 a year for civic government more than British Columbia, while Quebec, with probably 2,250,000 people, paid $250,000 less annually than British Columbia. The total per capita debt in British Columbia, he said, was $13.07, and in Ontario but $6.93. In population British Columbia was sixth among the provinces and yet it was third highest in expenditure.

"And when I say cost of administration," he went on, "I am not including outlays for railways, roads, hospitals, schools and so forth. The speaker assailed the Government for its policy in connection with municipal finance, recalling that when the cities and towns of the Province had appealed to Premier Oliver for relief they had been met with the answer that they could "stew in their own juice," or words to that effect. On the other hand, Mr. Bowser had shown his appreciation of the situation and was prepared to make a per capita grant to the municipalities—a just and equitable remedy.

In conclusion, Mr. Barnard praised the Opposition candidates who were applauded.

Canon Hinchliffe.

Glancing over the Conservative ticket, Canon Hinchliffe observed that it included Mr. Northcott, who had had long experience in public matters; Mr. Stewart, a "canny Scot," and Mr. Sutherland an eminently respectable gentleman, while he himself had been added to lend dignity to the team. "Thus," he remarked, "the ticket includes experience, canniness, respectability and dignity."

Canon Hinchliffe apologized for his lack of some of the great qualities possessed by politicians, among them the ability to tear their opponents' characters to pieces. "But I think that the respectable people of this Province are just about tired of that sort of thing," he proceeded, "and are sick of seeing Liberals abusing Conservatives and Conservatives abusing Liberals. They are tired of destructive criticism which, though, always attracts the crowd, as does the fire, while the erection of the building is not watched."

Mr. Hinchliffe said that he was in the field from a sense of duty. "Personally," he declared, "I don't care whether you vote for me or not, or whether I am elected or not. I think I would rather, as far as I am concerned personally, not be elected and if the people decide that the responsibilities of office must be placed on othes shoulders I shall be happier. I think, as those responsibilities are of a most serious nature.

Returned Soldier Problem.

The Oliver Government, he said, had acknowledged that it had something to do with the returned soldier problem and the Canon was willing to admit that it had done much good work through the Returned Soldiers' Aid Commission, which, so far as he could see, had acted fairly, honestly and justly and had been able to afford temporary relief in many cases. But it had not gone far enough. The Provincial Government, he thought, should have put itself behind the representations which the returned soldier organizations of the Province had made to Ottawa from time to time. The powers of the Commission should, in his opinion, be extended and made permanent in character.

If the raising of money for these purposes proved difficult, Canon Hinchliffe suggested a tax on domestic servants, a percapita tax on employers of recent aliens and some means whereby it would be possible for the Province to secure at least some percentage of the steady stream of British Columbia money into alien countries. Again, much money, he thought, could be saved through ordinary economy. For instance, a large sum of money might have been saved by holding the liquor plebiscite and the election on the same date. Of course, the Premier had pleaded that the voters might confound the two issues, but, said the Canon, "if anyone thinks that the electors have not sense enough to know whether they are voting for liquor licenses or members of Parliament he has a very poor opinion of their intelligence."

"Sane and Reasonable."

"I ask you to have confidence in the returned men, and a vast majority are trying to re-establish themselves, some under great disabilities, to re-establish themselves as good citizens," the Canon went on.

Proceeding to discuss the liquor question, Canon Hinchliffe pointed out that neither of the party leaders had announced how they would control liquor sales. Both, of course, had promised to obey the mandate of the people and enforce the law, but the Canon wished to add to these declarations "as far as is humanely possible."

"Some always will evade the law," he said, "but the Conservative party will put into effect a law, sane and reasonable which you will help to enforce because it will be in accordance with your wishes.

"The question asked in the plebiscite was not well thought out. It was hard to interpret the people's wish in the matter. My conclusion of what it meant was that I was voting for a regulated sale of liquor under Government control, but I did not consider how this was to be done. We hear of liquor ration cards, but who will get those — bona fide residents of British Columbia or anyone—dry residents of the United States who will be able to come in and get full as often as they wish and bring discredit on our moderation? If you restrict it to residents how about side visitors? You certainly gave the Legislature a knotty problem when you answered that liquor question.

"Now, again, how much liquor is a man to be allowed to get; if you make the allowance too large it's not moderation, and if you make it too niggardly, bootlegging will be encouraged. Surely the Legislature is between the Devil and the deep sea. So don't you dare ask me what kind of a liquor law should be brought down. It will take a lot of deep consideration before the matter can be solved.

"I take my stand on this ground: When all these things have been considered and weighed up I shall favor such legislation as will allow the restricted sale of liquor under Government control and tend to keep our Province decent and clean.

"I am not a politician but I have certain ideas about such things as medical attention, old age pensions and public health. There will be no peace in parliament until these things are considered and thrashed out, even if they are not taken up."

Ex-Mayor Stewart.

"The rumor has gone around that I was a Liberal and had tumbled over when I was offered a portfolio in the Bowser Government," commenced Alexander Stewart. "That is being worked hard at this election, as it was four years ago. I was never a Liberal, never attended a Liberal meeting and I want to make this perfectly clear. I don't propose to repeat that statement in this campaign and I hope it is perfectly clear.

"Four years ago I was told I was a fool to accept the portfolio which was offered to me and which I didn't seek. They told me I was a lamb going to the slaughter. I knew that, but that did not stop me. I could see that there was to be a change of Government.

"One of my reasons for taking that portfolio was Mr. Bowser himself, one of the most abused men in this Province. The people of this Province don't understand him to-day. If I did not think that I would not be here, for I don't care a snap of my finger for a man who is not doing the right thing. One of the best things about Mr. Bowser, as I discovered when I went to him as Mayor, is that he always gives a definite answer and does not temporize with people making requests of him."

The ex-Mayor recalled that in 1912 he had stated that the city was being robbed and had not withdrawn the statement even when threatened with civil suit. This was the condition in the Province to-day. "The Government is simply throwing money away hand over fist and they don't know where they are going. They say that we left millions of dollars of debts and that now the treasury is filled. But how? It is a very simple matter to fill the treasury by sweeping taxation. They expect to collect $13,500,000 this year. Where does it come from? In three years they got $575,750 in motor licenses. This year they expect to get $650,000. Surely there is no trouble to get overflowing treasuries in that way.

"The salaries of the civil servants under the late Government, in 1916 amounted to $1,660,000. To-day they pay out $3,202,000 in these salaries. We all know salaries should be increased on account of the rising cost of living. I am not criticizing increases but I do claim that there are far too many servants for the work to be done. Indeed, 25 per cent. of gross revenue is used to pay civil servants. The financial end of a government should be run as a business.

"They told you that the Bowser Government could not borrow money as cheaply as they could do. When they went into office there was an embargo on capital coming in. At that time the Federal Government sponsored one loan but outside of that they have not borrowed one loan as cheaply as the Bowser Government did in 1916 when money was secured at 5.60 per cent.

"Suppose these loans floated in the United States came due with the exchange as at present this Province will be out a great deal of money," Mr. Stewart declared, endeavoring to refute the claim of the Government that it had restored the credit of the Province. "The Americans are itching to buy bonds because they can get 8 per cent. on them. Who couldn't borrow money at 8 per cent. with this whole Province as a security?

"Another instance of the unbusinesslike methods of the Government was the fact that in the year 1917-18 the cost of supervision of public works, in which some $1,190,000 was spent, had been over 10 per cent. as compared with the 3.3 per cent. on the $4,129,000 spent for similar purposes in 1912-13.

World War Veteran Takes Tanlac on Getting Out of Hospital; Gains 22 Pounds and Feels Like Different Person

J. T. Willitt, who lives at Park Rooms, Pender Street, Vancouver, relates an interesting story of how he picked up a Vancouver newspaper in the trenches in France and read of Tanlac and later on his return home was restored to health and strength by this medicine.

Following is Mr. Willitt's experience in his own words:

"When I got out of the hospital where I was treated for wound and shell shock I was awful nervous. I knew I needed something to build me up, and then I remembered reading one day in the trenches how this medicine, Tanlac, was helping people in Vancouver.

"I happened to weigh the very day I started taking Tanlac and I felt mighty blue when I found I was down to 123 pounds, but I began to pick up right away and I was careful not to miss a single dose.

"I don't believe it possible to praise this medicine too much. I took just four bottles and I weigh 145 pounds and am gaining every day. I have a whale of an appetite now, and never a bit of trouble digesting anything. I sleep eight good hours every night and feel so fine in the morning that I feel like pinching myself to see if I can really be the same man who was almost a wreck a few weeks ago.

"I call it the luckiest act of my life that I happened to pick up that paper from home, because I owe the good way I feel to Tanlac and to nothing else."

Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell, corner Fort and Douglas, and in Esquimalt at Lang's Drug Store.

How Many Women Do You Know?

Who can say they are perfectly well? "I am tired all the time," "I am so nervous it seems as though I should fly," "I can hardly drag around to-day," and all such expressions are characteristic of women who have overtaxed their strength until headaches, backache, nervousness, dragging-down pains, irregularities and the blues, symptoms of a female weakness, have developed. Women who are in this condition may rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore them to health and strength.

"Such Wonderful Drives."—Referring to the cutting of timber along the Cowichan Lake Road and other Island highways, President J. L. Beckwith, of the Board of Trade, this morning criticized at the Council meeting the Government for allowing it to be done. "It's a shame; we have asked the Government many times to prevent this damage." The Council of the Board passed a resolution asking for cessation of such timber cutting.

DO A GOOD TURN

How many we find in this workaday world
Whose aim is to plot and to plan
To keep others down, and refuse, with a frown,
To do a good turn when they can.

It is easy for those who have riches galore
To prove helpful, but give me the man
Who is ready each day to go out of his way
To do a good turn if he can.

Though you're often hard pushed and have little to spare,
And practical help you must ban,
A kind word or a smile will prove welcome the while,
So do a good turn when you can.

"Perkins was feeling decidedly queer he couldn't get on with his work; he couldn't do anything. So he decided to pay a visit to the doctor. "I don't feel up to the mark," he said to the man of medicine. "Can you give me a tonic?" With pursed lips the doctor surveyed him for a moment or two, and, rising from his chair, remarked—"Has it ever occured to you that there's a great deal of imagination, Mr. Perkins?" "Certainly, doctor," answered Perkins. "Then go out of this surgery and imagine that there's nothing the matter with you. Come back in a week and let me know how you feel." The patient went, doctored himself, and returned to the physician at the appointed time. "Ah, ah," said the doctor. "You are feeling better now, I can see. Didn't I tell you there was a great deal in imagination?" "That's true," said Perkins. "What's is your charge?" "One guinea," said the doctor. "Well, imagine you've got it!" said Perkins.

Mrs. De Smythe was feeling very poorly; she complained of pains in her head and limbs; so she asked her hubby (who was rather mean) to send for the doctor, but he didn't see the necessity. "Why not try rubbing with some oils?" he said. "It's probably neuritis or neuralgia." "Oh, is it?" snapped she. "Then it's the first thing I have had 'new' for years."

Australians Show Off Long-Slow Arm Stroke

Swimmers Returning Home From Olympic Games Gives Spectators Thrills at Y. M. C. A. Tank Last Evening

The Y. M. C. A. tank was packed with spectators who turned out to see the Australian swimmers in action last night. Unfortunately Miss Lily Beaurepaire was not present and the promised diving exhibition was not forthcoming. However, the Australian swimming display was greatly enjoyed by everyone, and a very creditable performance was made by all the local contestants.

The total entry list included the three Australians, Frank Beaurepaire, K. Kirkland and W. Herald, and the following swimmers from the local clubs: V. A. S. C., Misses G. and K. Wellburn, J. D. McNeil, G. Silburn, E. Squire, G. Wellburn and Patterson; V. I. A. A., Misses Audrey Griffin, F. and P. Gates, M. Daniels, and E. Curry; Y. M. C. A., Angus McKinnon and Gordon Young.

The programme opened with a 40-yard men's race, which was won by Kirkland, closely followed by W. Herald and Squire. In the ladies' breast stroke, Audrey Griffin finished in her accustomed first place.

Showed His Speed.

The next event was the most exciting, being a 220-yards handicap. Silburn was given 30 seconds handicap, Kirkland 10 seconds and Beaurepaire was the scratch man. Beaurepaire fairly raced through the water, passing the other two men and finishing nearly a length of the tank ahead of Kirkland, who was second. His time, 2 minutes 30 seconds, while not equal to his best, was certainly the best time seen in a 220-yards race in Victoria.

The Australians then gave an exhibition of their methods of swimming. Mr. Beaurepaire introduced the swimmers and explained their various styles. One thing that struck the Victoria swimmers was the long, slow arm stroke. Their arms are kept as nearly straight as possible and used as oars, the whole length of the arm taking the sweep through the water. Herald, their sprint man, uses a crawl stroke, while the other two use a different style of trudgeon-crawl.

Thrilling Relay Race.

A mixed relay race, of three teams, five to a team, gave the spectators something exciting to watch. Each swimmer had to swim 40 yards or two lengths of the tank, and until the very last it was impossible to say which would be the winning team. The finish was almost a dead heat between Kirklands and Herald's teams, Kirkland winning by a touch.

Two water polo games were staged, but unfortunately the Y tank is too small to stage anything but an exhibition game. The line-up for the first game was:

"A" team—Beaurepaire, McNeill, Wellburn, Young and Silburn.

"B" team—Kirkland, Herald, McKinnon, Squire, and Patterson. The game was fast and wet for the spectators, and the score at the finish was 2-2. This was followed by a team of ladies versus men.

The line-up was:

Ladies—K. Wellburn, Audrey Griffin, E. Curry, M. Daniels, G. Wellburn, F. Gates and P. Gates.

Men—Kirkland, Herald, McKinnon, Young and Squire. The score was 2-0 in favor of the men.

The gala was held under the auspices of the B. C. branch of the Canadian Amateur Swimming Association. The officials were: Referee water polo, Ernie Worth; judges, George Warren, Mrs. W. H. Davies; timekeepers, V. J. Dunn, W. H. Wilkerson, M. Kilburger.

40 yards dash, men—Kirkland, 1st; Herald, 2nd; Squires, 3rd. Time, 21 seconds.

40 yards, breast stroke, women—Audrey Griffin, 1st; F. Gates, 2nd; Muriel Daniels, 3rd. Time, 34 secs.

220 yards, men—F. Beaurepaire, 1st; Kirkland, 2nd; Squires, 3rd. Time, 2 mins., 30 secs. Kirkland received 10 secs. and Squires 15 secs. start in this race.

Mixed relay, 5 to team—1st, Kirkland's team; 2nd, Herald's team; 3rd, Beaurepaire's team.

Yesterday afternoon the ladies of the V. A. S. C. took the visitors automobiling around Victoria and Mrs. McAllister, Vice-President of the Club, invited the visitors to her house for supper.

NO MORE SKIN-TIGHT SWIMMING COSTUMES

Girls Must Not Wear Low-necked Suit That Shrink, Union Decided

New Orleans, La., Nov. 17.—Girl swimmers who compete in amateur athletic union contests in future must wear swimming suits that come higher about the neck and must be cut with a due allowance for shrinkage, under a rule adopted last night at the final session of the annual convention of the union here.

Judge Barlow S. Weeks, chairman of the legislative committee, described the low cut and tight-fitting suits worn by American girls in the Olympic Games and said these girls had been criticized by the Europeans.

Under the terms of the new ruling regulation suits must be worn by both men and women.

VARSITY FULL-BACK NOT TO PLAY HERE

Hal Gwyther, Picked For Vancouver Rep Team, Hurt; Out For Season

Vancouver, Nov. 17.—Hal Gwyther, the Varsity full-back who was picked to play that position for the Vancouver "rep" ruggers against Victoria for the McKechnie Cup at the capital on Saturday, will be unable to take his place in the line-up for that game, and may be out for the remainder of the season, owing to an injury to one of his legs.

Gwyther was troubled with a bad leg last year, but it had healed nicely until last Saturday, when he hurt it again. Stewart, of the Rowing Club, may take his place against the Victorians.

Weight and Experience Against Youth and Speed

Advance reports from the Mainland indicate that Vancouver is sending over the strongest fifteen that has represented the Terminal City for a number of years. The fast 'Varsity team has no less than eight of their crack players on the side.

It is noticed that there is a vast difference in the composition of the two teams. Vancouver is relying on the youthful, fast type of player, with plenty of weight in the front line. This under ordinary circumstances would probably be enough to finish ahead.

Veterans Capable.

Taking a cursory glance at the Victoria side, one is struck by the number of veterans included: Sholto Gillespie, Errol Gillespie, D. M. and G. C. Grant, Acland, Stewart and Drummond probably commenced playing rugger before most of the Vancouver side started to handle a ball. It may be argued that this is in favor of the younger side. This, however, has been proved a fallacy. In the Wanderers-Old Boys game it was conclusively proved that experience and weight were predominant over youth and speed. The knowledge of what to do and when to do it and how to finish a play when started had the edge on extreme speed and youth.

Another noticeable fact is that on the Capitals' side most of the players have worked together before and their combination should be much better.

The New Captain.

Sholto Gillespie, who captains the Victoria team this year, is one of a famous rugger family. Hep, A., Ronald and Errol being the other brothers who have starred. Sholto is a football graduate from the famous Scottish school, Fettis Loretto. This college has probably turned out more rugby players than any other in the north. He weighs well over the two hundred mark, stands considerably over six feet in height and is recognized as the fastest big man in this city. Although starting as a forward, he soon found his place as a centre three, and in that position is invaluable. He is not the first of his family to lead a rep. team. Both of his brothers, Hep and Ronald, attained that distinction.

The Vancouver fifteen will find that it will be just as difficult to lift the cup this year as it has been in the past.

Mr. Denniston has been requested by Vancouver to referee the game.

EDDIE CICOTTE WILL BE THE TATTLE-TALE

Agrees to Turn State's Evidence and Tell of How Games Were Thrown

Chicago, Nov. 17.—Eddie Cicotte Chicago White Sox pitcher, whose confession resulted in numerous indictments by the special Cook County baseball grand jury, in connection with the 1919 world series scandal, probably will not be punished for his part in the game throwing, according to officials of the state's attorney's office. Cicotte will turn state's evidence when the men indicted are tried and his only sentence will be banishment from organized baseball, it was said last night.

D. P. Cassaday, of Detroit, Cicotte's attorney, conferred yesterday with state attorneys over the pitcher's confession and possible testimony. At this conference, according to state officials, Cassaday promised that Cicotte would tell the court the same story he told the jury. As a result it was arranged for him to furnish bonds without personally appearing. While other indicted players who have voluntarily surrendered have been required to furnish $10,000 bonds, Cicotte's bail was fixed at $5,000 on the plea of Cassaday that it would work a financial hardship on the White Sox player to force him to put up more than that amount. Cassaday deposited $5,000 in liberty bonds as bail.

Need Cicotte's Evidence.

While no official announcement was made by the state's attorney's office, an official let it become known that but for Cicotte's testimony the jury never would have had sufficient evidence to indict more than one or two persons, and that there would be little chance of conviction without the pitcher as a state witness.

"Before Cicotte confessed, we had reams of hearsay evidence," this official said last night, "but none of it would have held in court. We might have returned a few indictments on it, but that would have been the end of the case. We wanted conviction and not indictments, and in order to get the evidence necessary we had to have a confession. We were certain Cicotte knew more than many others whose names had been given us, so we went after him. Of course, we have to concede something to such a witness, and we'd rather see Cicotte free and convict the rest than to let them all get away."

This official refused to say whether an agreement for immunity had been reached with Cicotte before the pitcher confessed. He also declared that the jury received evidence against a club owner of the American League and well-known baseball player in the same organization, but that no indictments were returned against the men because the jury did not think the evidence sufficient to convict in a trial.

"We had plenty of evidence to return an indistment," he explained "but we indicted only men whom we felt sure could be convicted."

The ball players and gamblers indicted by the jury probably will be brought to trial in January, it was said.

Davis Cup Team Gives Fine Tennis Exhibition

Johnston's Terrific Driving and Tilden's Accurate Placing Feature Evening's Play; Have Great Capabilities

Six hundred tennis followers gathered in the Drill Hall last evening and witnessed the exhibition provided by the United States Davis Cup team, assisted by Bernie Schwengers, ex-Canadian champion; Marshall Allan, the Seattle boy wonder, and J. Thomas, the Australian expert. The performance was of exceptional merit, the only disappointing feature being the failure of Tilden and Johnston to meet in the singles. The spectators were looking forward with keen relish to this match, which would have been the greatest exhibition that could be arranged anywhere, but it appeared that the two topnotchers of the net have been opposing one another so often during their swing across the Continent that they requested a change in the programme.

The court which had been marked off in the Drill Hall was fast and the bounce was good. The light was hardly strong enough and at times the ball was scarcely visible which it recoiled with the speed of a bullet from the racquets of the champions. However, the spectators were given a splendid treat, and they witnessed a variety of services and strokes. Tilden did not extend himself but the aggresive Johnston threw himself into the game whole-heartedly and drew rounds of applause by his terrific driving which at times had his opponents crossing their fingers.

The Different Types.

The U.S. Davis Cup team embraced four interesting types of players. Tilden, champion of Europe and the United States, is tall and sligh, plays vigorously in the back court and acts quickly at the net, his placing completely baffling his opponents. Johnston, the second best player in the States, is an entirely different type. He is a midget but is wiry and very aggressive. In his service he takes a full arm swing and gains tremendous power. Johnston has a very wicked return. His placing is not the equal of Tilden, but the speed of his driving makes it difficult for an opponent to return inside. Washburn played cooly and cautiously and was the steadiest and most consistent player on the court last night. His service is odd but effective. His cross-fire was interesting to watch. In the singles with Hardy Washburn had the genial Samuel completely at his mercy by his uncanny placing which time after time had Hardy outguessed. Hardy is the captain and fourth member of the team. He is a veteran at the game and at times last night showed flashes of brilliancy. He has a bouyant spirit which assists him materially on the court.

Johnston Spectacular.

Johnston's playing was probably the more spectacular through the fact that he exerted himself more than Tilden and gave a rare exhibition of driving. At times Tilden opened up and showed the spectators the real world's champion. When paired with Allan against Johnston and Schwengers, Tilden was continually beaten by Johnston's terrific returns. In the following doubles, when Tilden paired with Washburn and Johnston with Thomas, Tilden gave a better account of himself. He revealed the variety of strokes for which he has gained fame and fought Johnston. At one time Johnston again loosened one of his terrific smashes, only to have Tilden place the return close to the net just inside the line, well out of reach of Thomas. Tilden placed some beauties during the second set, and he livened up his service.

Bernie Schwengers showed the spectators that although he has not been in active competition for some years, he has retained some of the skill and cunning which lead him to the top of Canada's tennis list. He showed up well in his match with Johnston against Tilden and Allen. His service was good and he made some nice returns from the back court.

Thomas, the Australian, who with Lycett, defeated Brookes and Patterson at Wimbledon, played keenly. He had a fast service, but was none too sure in his returns. Marshall Allan made a good showing in the fast company, and has the earsmarks of a coming champion.

The first game played was a single between Washburn and Hardy, which was won by the former, 6-3, 6-4.

This was followed by doubles with Allen and Tilden, against Schwengers and Johnston. The latter pair speedily took the lead and had 4-1. Tilden and Allen then started to win game after game, and eventually won 8-6, taking the next set 6-3.

The next doubles on the programme with Johnston and Thomas opposed to Tilden and Washburn, was very hotly contested. The first set was won by Tilden and Washburn 7-5, and the second set went 5 all, 6 all and 7 all, and was finally won by Johnston and Thomas by the odd game 8-7, not being played out to vantage games owing to the lateness of the hour.

HAP HOLMES IS NOT TALKING WITH EAST

Seattle Goal-tender Says He Has Signed to Play With Muldoon

Seattle, Nov. 17.—Harry Holmes, reported in Toronto dispatches as due there to-day to talk hockey with the Canadian Hockey Association is in Seattle and has no intention of going East.

"I agreed to play with the Seattle Club on September 15 and I should think Mr. Livingstone and others know me well enough to know that that decision is final," said Holmes to-day.

Roy Rickey and Cully Wilson, former Seattle players who have signed with Livingstone, leave to-morrow for Toronto. All other Seattle players are signed to contracts and have no wish to play outlaw hockey, they say.

FAMOUS LEMON GAME GIVEN TO WAR VETS.

Spectators Who in Future Throws Lemons May Find Themselves in Court

That lemon incident last Saturday at the Metropolis-G.W.V.A. football game turned out to be a pretty sour pill for the Mets to swallow. At a meeting of the Victoria and District Football Association held last evening the game was awarded to the Vets. The Mets had been hoping for a replay and argued strongly in favor of it. The meeting, however, took the view that the time Referee Locke's face was made the taget for a lemon the Vets were leading 2-0, and as only thirteen minutes' play remained and the Mets were two men short, the Vets were sure of a win. The officials did not think it would be fair to order a replay in view of these circumstances, as an unfair advantage would be given the Mets.

The association discussed whether or not to punish the offenders. The players, Wale and Owen, who were ordered off by Referee Locke, were reprimanded, but the officials did not consider the offence serious enough to warrant suspension.

Spectators Warned

Spectators are warned that no future insults on referees will be tolerated. It appears that the spectator who hurled the lemon on Saturday did not aim at the referee, but like the suffragettes connected with the mark when hurling at something else. In future any persons caught throwing missiles on the football field, which strike either players or referee, will be prosecuted by the association to the full extent of the law.

The games arranged for Saturday are as follows:

Senior League.

Victoria West vs. Metropolis at Royal Athletic Park. Referee, Payne.

Sons of England vs. Comrades at Central Park. Referee, Dougan.

G. W. V. A. vs. Yarrows at Beacon Hill, lower ground. Referee, Pearson.

Intermediate League.

Firemen vs. Garrison at Beacon Hill, upper ground. Referee, McEwan. (This is the unplayed game of last week, November 13).

All games are scheduled to start at 2.45 p.m. sharp.

Junior League.

Eight teams have entered for the Junior League, and it was arranged to start play in this league on November 27. The teams entered are: Victoria Juniors, Saanich Rovers, Sons of England Juniors, Civil Service, Boys' Naval Brigade, James Bay Juniors, Rockside Roosters and Juvenile Foresters.

A. Manson and T. Briggs were appointed a committee to draw up the schedule and arrange for grounds.

In the matter of the Island League, a communication was received from the Upper Island to the Victoria executive, suggesting that a Victoria delegation go to Nanaimo on November 20 to arrange for inter-city games. This business was left over for a special meeting to be held on Friday, November 19, at 8 p.m., at the G. W. V. A. rooms.

V. I. A. A. NOTES

Owing to the fact of the international sporting events which were held in the city last evening and the police ball being held on Thursday evening, the gymnasium night for the V. I. A. A. athletes will be this evening, when all athletes are requested to be present.

Members of the Victoria representative rugby team are invited to attend the V. I. A. A. gymnasium and indulge in scrum practice and general workout in preparation of the first inter-city game with Vancouver, which is to be played next Saturday.

The men's basketball and the ladies basketball teams of the V. I. A. A. are now organised and would like to arrange a series of games with any of the teams in the city.

The ice hockey team, which is captained by Vic. Gravlin, would like to arrange a game with the team representing the Old Boys' Rugby Club.

ELK SWIMMERS MEET

A meeting of the Elks Swimming Club will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the Carlton Cafe, Broad Street. Every member is urgently requested to be present as business of vital importance to the future welfare of the club will be up for discussion. Detailed reports on the various activities of the club during the past season will be read.

WANT INSTRUCTORS CREATED AMATEURS

Quebec Makes Important Recommendation to Amateur Union of Canada

According to a communication received by Arthur Manson, president of the B. C. A. A. U., from the Quebec branch of the A. A. U. of C., that body is anxious to have several very important amendments made to the constitution of the Amateur Union One is the reinstatement of all professionals who have been out of sport for three years, another to have the Olympic committee reorganized and another to create a Western and Eastern division of the Union

There is another resolution which if passed will clear up the local situation It reads as follows:

"That any physical director, parks or playgrounds instructor or any person engaged in similar work who has never at any time competed as a professional athlete shall be considered an amateur under the definition of the A. A. U. of Canada."

Affect Gravlin.

If the annual meeting of the A. A. U. of C. passes this resolution it will mean that Walt Gravlin will be an amateur. Gravlin was claimed a professional because he was a paid instructor at a golf club. As a result of his mingling with amateurs at a game the present squabble has arisen in this city. Physical directors of the Y. M. C. A. and other athletic organizations would also be allowed to compete in every branch of sport. This would bring George Goulding, the great Canadian walker, back to the fold.

The B. C. A. A. U. will hold a meeting in the near future to consider the resolutions and instruct its delegate Dr. Davidson, of Vancouver, to the annual meeting at Winnipeg on December 10 as to what action to take in these matters.

DUNCAN CLEANS UP IN DOUBLE-HEADER

Duncan, Nov. 17.—Duncan Basketball Club annexed a double-headed win on Monday evening when they played their first out-of-town matches and scored a win in both the intermediate and senior games staged against the Shawnigan Lake Club.

In the intermediate game the locals found little difficulty in disposing of their opponents to the tune of 20-5; while in the senior game till within the last five minutes of the final whistle Shawnigan Lake kept the lead; at half-time the score stood 10-4 in favor of the Lake quintette; then in the second half Duncan gradually pulled up, and with five minutes to play the score showed Shawnigan Lake 13 and Duncan 16. With a fine spurt Duncan notched up six points, which made the final score 16-13 in favor of Duncan.

Over Fifty Years Ago

a young physician practiced widely in a rural district and became famous for his uniform success in the curing of disease. This was Dr. R. V. Pierce, who afterwards established himself in Buffalo, N. Y., and placed one of his prescriptions, which he called his "Golden Medical Discovery," in the drug stores of the United States and Canada so the public could obtain this very remarkable tonic, corrective, and blood-maker. Dr. Pierce manufactured this "Discovery" from roots and barks—a corrective remedy, the ingredients of which nature had put in the fields and forests, for keeping us healthy. Few folks or families now living have not at sometime or other used this Golden Medical Discovery for the stomach, liver and heart. Evidence of the wonderful sale of this medicine is recorded in the books of Dr. Pierce's Laboratory in Buffalo, N. Y., showing that over twenty-four million bottles of this tonic and blood remedy have been sold in this country. No one can fight the battles of life and hold his own if his blood is not pure. No one suffers from colds, "flu" and catarrh who has plenty of red corpuscles and a good digestion. As cell-nutrition depends upon the blood, impurities in the blood, together with a lowered bodily resistance, cause catarrh. Introduce pure red blood into the system, and health is assured.

Dr. Pierce advises you, if you wish to avoid the many germ diseases, to keep your blood in good order. You can obtain Golden Medical Discovery in tablet or liquid form at all drug stores, or send 10c for a trial package to Dr. Pierce's Laboratory in Buffalo, N. Y.

JUDGES' OPINION FAVOR JAPANESE

Appeal Court Makes Finding on Barring of Japanese From B. C. Timbering

Provincial Order-in-Council Passed in 1902 Declared Ultra Vires

Vancouver, Nov. 17. — Legislation enacted by the Government of British Columbia for the purpose of preventing the employment of Japanese under logging and timbering licenses throughout the Province has been declared ultra vires by the Court of Appeal.

The contentious question was referred to the court by the Lieutenant-Governor in June last as a result of the Dominion Minister of Justice and the Provincial Attorney-General differing as to the powers of the Province to enforce an Order-in-Council of April, 1902. This specifically prohibited the employment of any Japanese by the owner of a timber or logging license.

The Province was represented in the argument before the Court by Hon. J. W. de B. Farris, and the case for the Japanese was presented by Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper, K.C. In written opinions handed down for three appeal judges yesterday they decided against the Province and in favor of the Japanese.

Mr. Justice McPhillips in his judgment, stated that the questions for consideration were in direct conflict with the Japanese treaty of 1913. The provincial legislation in question would therefore have no validity.

Questions.

The questions referred to Their Lordships were:

"Does the Japanese Treaty Act, 1913, operate and apply so as to limit the effect of the legislative jurisdiction or power of the Legislative Assembly of the Province, and, if so, in what particular or respect?

"If the act does not operate or apply so as to limit or effect the legislative jurisdiction or powers of the Legislative Assembly of the Province, does the said treaty itself operate or apply so as to limit the legislative jurisdiction or powers of the said Legislative Assembly?

Public Works.

"Is it competent to the Legislature of British Columbia to authorize the Government of the Province to insert as a term of its contracts for the construction of provincial public works, a provision that no Japanese shall be employed upon, about, or in connection with such work?

"Is it competent to the Legislature of British Columbia to authorize the Government of the Province to insert as a term of its contracts and leases conferring rights and concessions in respect of the public lands belonging to the Province, including the timber and water thereof and the minerals therein, a provision that no Japanese shall be employed in or about such premises?"

Enforced.

It was in April, 1902, that the measure was enacted that no Chinese or Japanese should be employed in all contracts, leases and concessions from the Government. This had recently been enforced by the district forester, and immediately led to the matter being referred to the Court of Appeal.

"Political rights are not beyond the powers of the Province, and in passing it might be said the Japanese treaty does not impose any obligations of this nature," said Mr. Justice McPhillips.

His Lordship pointed out that the Japanese Treaty Act was declared to have the force of law in Canada, and consequently displaced any legislation, either Dominion or Provincial, which conflicted with it.

Ultra Vires.

"The Order-in-Council is clearly ultra vires, and it would be ultra vires of the Legislative Assembly to enact or authorize the passage of any Order-in-Council providing for insertion in any contracts, leases or concessions, any inhibitory provision that no Japanese shall be employed," it was stated by His Lordship in one part of his judgment.

Chief Justice Macdonald stated the Province had no power, under the provisions of the British North America Act, to legislate in the matters which had been referred to the court for decision.

Mr. Justice Galliher concurred.

Mr. Justice Martin and Mr. Justice Eberts were not present when the case was argued.

DOESN'T LIKE THEM.

To the Editor:—I see that two returned men are asking for the soldier vote as Soldier-Labor candidates. They are running as team mates with Messrs. Dakers and Dooley. Do they know that while young boys and old men were over in France facing the Hun Mr. Dakers, a fit young man, could not find anything better to do than publicly speak against conscription and against the Victory Loan, at least helped in the latter case by Mr. Dooley?

That is the way in which Messrs. Dakers and Dooley tried to make our job lighter for us in France. Do they think we returned men are fools that they hope us to support them now. What are they anyway? Just puppets of Hawthornthwaite, the man who trampled on the Old Flag while our best men were bleeding and dying for it.

Be not mistaken—returned men will not forget on December 1.

EX-PRIVATE.

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 16, 1920.

"LEST WE FORGET."

To the Editor:—I was one of the privileged few who listened to a review of the splendid and courageous work done by the "Contemptibles," that small body of British soldiers who by their heroic sacrifice held the hordes of Germans at bay, so making it possible for those who came later at the "Call" to say, "The British Flag still flies unfurled." "Can we forget?" I was standing for a few moments in silent thought with those men who had seen the horrors of war, who had seen their "pals" shot down and heard their cries of anguish and pain. In front of me stood one of those men who had passed through the fire; to-day he finds himself disabled, crippled, yet from the smile upon his face one would have thought he had no care in the world. Had he forgotten?

Som efew weeks ago a man, married, with children, applied for work. In his coat he wore a button. Before leaving Canada he followed a good trade. He returned with only a portion of his hand and injury to his arm, which was useless. I could do nothing at the time in this case, and in conversation he explained his position. I saw a tear in his eye. He stated he had tried to use the arm wheeling a barrow and handling tools, but this was useless. I followed this up and making enquiries I find there are scores of similar cases. I took this up with the S. C. R. and found out that it was impossible to place these cases. They were not wanted. These men who left in their full vigor, able in body and mind, returned broken to a "grateful country," met with bands and cheers from crowds of people. I have seen them, driven through them times without number, when I had the pleasure of taking them from the boat to the hospital. What a change. Have we forgotten?"

Armistice Day passed in most of the principal cities, crowds again cheered, streets were lined with bunting, those men who "won the victory" called heroes, stood by. Many halls were filled, fine dishes were served, the best of cigars passed around, yet in the crowds, listening to these roaring ovations, stand men disabled, dejected, outside in the street listening to the songs and cheers from those at a festive board. A disabled man stands hungry, thinking of a wife and children waiting at home. Thousands of dollars are being spent in building memorial halls and churches "in memory of the dead." Passing by the same in the near future many of these disabled "heroes" will pass. Let me draw a picture. A man minus an arm or a leg, or badly gassed, not wanted, no work, leading a child, at home perhaps more children, a wife—all hungry. The child asks the father, "What is that for?" He replies, "In memory of my pals who died at the front, my child." (A beautiful spirit without doubt, the building of these mementoes). He looks at the child, poorly clad, practically shoeless, and wonders if it would not have been better for him to have been laid at the side of his pals. "He could not forget."

I remember as a boy hearing of men who had given their all for the country and who through injury were unable to get a living, selling laces, even begging. "They were forgotten."

Mr. Editor, are these facts? Have I overdrawn the picture? Will this be the return given by a grateful country, a country which, only for these men, to-day would be under the rule of German autocracy? Can we allow a single returned man that left these shores in good health, and who having returned crippled, unable to follow a trade to get him and his family a respectable living, starve? Shall we have "Not forgotten" our promise to these men when they left and when they returned? Should this be left to returned soldiers' organizations, who in their bitterness resent it, and rightly so? These men have fought once, and won, for liberty and justice. Having done so, then, why should they have to fight the people they fought for to enable them to get justice? In my position I meet these men every day. I watch many of them working, willing and eager to do their best. They do not want charity. I know it from experience. In conclusion I can only say, not "Lest we forget," but "We have already forgotten."

I have "not forgotten" a son now laid with his pals in France. I feel sometimes it were better so, far better than to have him come back to an unthankful country, who could have so "soon forgotten." Better to "think" of the dead and do "something" for the living.

Victoria Industry Developing Markets

Australia and New Zealand Offer Big Field For Products of Sidney Roofing & Paper Co.; Output of Plant Now at Capacity.

Products of Victoria's newest industry now form part of the cargo of practically every liner clearing from this port for Australasia.

The plant of the Sidney Roofing & Paper Co., Ltd., recently opened on the Songhees Reserve industrial area, is now turning out paper and roofing material to the full extent of its capacity and Australasia is one of its chief export markets.

Close upon one hundred tons of roofing paper were shipped to-day by the liner Niagara to New Zealand and Australia.

"We are gradually developing our export markets," declared Manager F. H. Mayhew to-day, and we expect to increase our shipments to Australia and new Zealand, and also to the countries of the Orient." Various shipments have been forwarded to the Orient and this is a field which the new industry here plans to cater to more extensively in the future.

To Go After Business.

"Up to the present," said Mr. Mayhew, "we have not been in a position to go after the business, but now that we have our new plant in operation, we propose to develop the export business on a more considerable scale."

The company is now ten months behind in delivery of orders already on hand and double shifts are running in an effort to catch up with the orders. The daily output of paper at the plant is from fifteen to eighteen tons and two shifts are working in connection with the manufacture of roofing materials, the daily capacity of the plant in this product being 1,000 rolls. Sixty men are now on the company's payroll.

In order that the citizens of Victoria may become better acquainted with the development of the paper and roofing industry here, the Sidney Roofing & Paper Company proposes, in the near future, to throw open the entire works for public inspection. Details of this plan will be announced at a later date.

The Commodore is owned by the Commodore Shipping Company, of Seattle, and formerly was known as the Blaatind. As the Blaatind the vessel was built last year at the J. H. Price Shipbuilding Company's plant north of Seattle. She was laid up for months in Seattle harbor, and last Summer was purchased by the Commodore Company.

HEAVY TRAVEL TO PROVINCE PREDICTED

Chas. E. Stokes, of "Cook's," Convinced of Influx From South

Visiting the city this week is Charles E. Stokes, Pacific Coast agent for Thomas Cook & Sons, with headquarters at San Francisco. Mr. Stokes is an old-timer on this coast and was a frequent visitor here during the Klondike rush.

He is among those who predict heavy travel to British Columbia, especially when the liquor restrictions are relaxed.

He says that although he realizes that the Moderation Act is not being made law for the benefit of Americans, there is bound to be a heavy travel northward. He thinks those who come here will be of the better class only, as he has no doubt the immigration authorities will vigorously carry out their duty.

He deplores the fact that southern property owners are charged with charging Canadians heavy rentals for houses. He states that this is untrue as a general rule, although there may be exceptions. If people go down to California to throw money around, he says, they are bound to think they are being overcharged.

J. G. Harrison, general manager for Thomas Cook & Sons, is expected on the coast in a few days.

INVENTOR RETURNING

The C.G.M.M. freighter Canadian Inventor sailed from Auckland November 9 for Vancouver.

BOUND TO FIJI AS FINANCIAL ADVISER

Ludger Catellier, Formerly of the Inland Revenue Department, Sailed on Niagara

The Niagara is bound for sea this afternoon with passengers destined for New Zealand and Australia.

Ludger Catellier, B. A., L. L. M., late secretary and law clerk of the department of Inland Revenue, and solicitor and secretary to the war purchasing commission, is on board. He is going to Fiji to take up the responsible post of commissioner of taxation and general financial advisor of the British Colony.

His jurisdiction will extend over a territory of 7435 square miles, including 250 islands, of which about 80 are inhabited, with a total population of about 120,000 people. He is loaned to the Governor of the Fiji Islands for one year, following a close interchange of cables between that official and His Excellency the Governor General, through whom the appointment was made, the former asking if a fully qualified officer could be spared from the Inland Revenue Department as taxation commissioner and general financial advisor.

Difficulty, he stated, had arisen in the administration of the income ordinance, and the financial conditions of the department of state generally were bad. Mr. Catellier, selected as the man for the job, has stood out prominently since his connection with the civil service back in October, 1914.

Mr. Catellier, who is 36, is the son of the late Dr. Laurent Catellier of Quebec, one of Canada's most noted surgeons, and ex-dean of Laval University, Quebec. Admitted to the bar in 1908, he practised his profession extensively and acted as solicitor to the Laurentide Pulp and Paper Company of Grand Mere, Que. He joined the Inland Revenue Department in 1914 and served as secretary and law clerk of the department from April, 1915, to October 1, 1918, when he was loaned to the War Purchasing Commission as solicitor and secretary to the chairman, Sir Hormisdas Laporte.

The American Davis Cup team, Tilden and Johnston, who gave a tennis exhibition here last night, and J. Thomas, the noted Australian tennis player; also the Australian swimmers, Miss Lily Baurepaire, P. Beaurepaire, W. Herald and K. Kirkland, are sailing by the Niagara for the Antipodes.

WAITEMATA COMING

The British steamship Waitemata, of the Canadian - Australasian freighting fleet, sailed from Auckland November 10 for British Columbia ports.

First Passenger Liner at Ogden Point Docks

Outbound Canadian-Australasian Steamship Niagara Took Up Berth At Government Piers to Embark Passengers and Load Freight For the Antipodes.

Berthing of the first passenger liner at the new Government docks at Ogden Point took place to-day when the Canadian-Australasian liner Niagara came alongside Pier 2 inside the breakwater shortly after noon, following her arrival from Vancouver, outbound for Australasia.

With the Blue Funnel liner Tyndareus occupying the Niagara's regular berth at the Rithet pier loading salt fish, Captain J. T. Rolls, commander of the Niagara, instructed the agents here to make arrangements for the berthing of his ship at the Government piers.

Tug Stood By.

Precautions were taken to have a tug on hand to assist, if necessary, in the docking operations, the tug Olive M., of the Victoria Tug Company's fleet, standing by awaiting orders.

The 14,000-ton passenger liner came alongside easily about 12.30 p. m., and after she had been safely moored, commenced taking aboard freight which had been delivered at the new docks for shipment to New Zealand and Australia. The Niagara carried a large complement of passengers and embarked others at this port.

She cleared late this afternoon on her return voyage to Auckland and Sydney.

James McArthur, superintendent at the Government docks, supervised the arrangements for the docking of the Niagara.

The new docks, which are being operated by the Canadian National Railways, are not yet officially in commission, although various deep-sea freighters recently have loaded cargo for the Orient.

LUMBER RATES DROP

Seattle, Nov. 17.—Lumber charter rates from Puget Sound and Southwestern Washington ports to Cape Town and other South African ports have dropped $2.50 a thousand board feet, according to the weekly freight circular of the Shipowners' Association of the Pacific Coast, received today from San Francisco. The old rates were $50 to $52.50 a thousand feet. The new rates are $47.50 to $50 a thousand.

The lumber rate from Puget Sound and Southwestern Washington ports are quoted in this week's circular as $15 to $17 a thousand feet. Meretofore these rates have been $17 flat.

STEERSMAN'S ERROR CAUSE OF DISASTER

In Opinion of Captain C. H. Nicholson, Testifying Prince Rupert Inquiry

Vancouver, Nov. 17.—That an error on the part of Acting-Quartermaster H. E. Burke was the cause of the wreck of the steamship Prince Rupert was the opinion expressed on the witness stand this morning by Captann C. H. Nicholson, general manager of the consolidated lines of the G. T. P. and C. N. R. coast steamers. He stated that he had arrived at this opinion after a very careful investigation of the accident held at Swanson Bay shortly after the accident occurred.

The marine court of inquiry resumed this morning and adjourned at noon, to sit again at 10.30 a. m. on Thursday. The adjournment was made to await the arrival of the steamer Prince Albert. The engineers who were on duty on the Prince Rupert when the accident took place are now on the Prince Albert and the Board is anxious to obtain their evidence.

Captain Recalled.

The morning session opened with Captain Duncan Mackenzie again on the stand. Commissioner Macpherson examined him closely on various parts of evidence already given. Captain Mackenzie, in answer to a series of questions, stated that the first he knew of Burke being at the wheel was when he heard his voice. He thought the accident was due to an error by the man at the wheel or to an unaccountable sheer of the vessel, basing this opinion on the fact that immediately he gave the order "No. 56-W." He noted the echo was coming from the wrong direction and he ordered hard a-starboard, and when he raised his head there was land right in front.

Struck Lightly.

The ship struck lightly, almost on the steam, and bumped, though he could not say exactly how she was headed at the moment. She was swinging at the time. At Swanson Bay, after landing, he asked Burke why he did not answer when he received the order to change to N. 56 W., and the latter said he had not done so because he had seen land ahead.

Commissioner Macpherson said here that Burke's evidence was to the effect that it was too thick, and he had seen nothing. Captain Mackenzie was positive of Burke's statement at Swanson's Bay, and added that he had heard him try to say something just before the ship struck, but he had not understood it. The captain said he knew or was positive the man was confused.

Boats Swung.

Commissioner Macpherson said he had heard from an influential Government official that the lifeboats were not swung out after the Prince Rupert struck. Captain Mackenzie replied that this rumor was absolutely untrue, the boats were out, swung opposite the cargo ports, two feet above the water. It was his first intention to hold the ship against the bank and land the passengers by the boats, but when he received successive reports on the depth of water in the holds he knew he could make Swanson Bay safely.

Questioned further he said that he could bring the Prince Rupert to a stop from fifteen knots speed in a thousand feet.

The Commissioner asked further information about maintaining schedules. He said that it was 522 miles to Prince Rupert from Vancouver, and this would require 13.56 knots speed in a steady run. The witness said that of course there were stops at various points and this would mean speeding up to make lost time. The Commissioner said that allowing an hour and 15 minutes as an average for stops it would require a speed of 14.5 knots to make the schedule. Captain Mackenzie replied that if the ship hit a flood tide it would put her back in making Johnson Straits and consequently even more speed would be required. However, speed depended considerably on the length of delays in ports.

The witness said there were two officers on watch when the ship left Swanson Bay. The chief officer was on the bridge, and at the time of the accident the other officer was on the main deck coming forward after having seen all snug from Swanson Bay. The vessel had been out 24 minutes from the Bay and the officer should have been forward at that time. Captain Mackenzie expected he was in the wheelhouse as he was usually there by that time. He had not, however, assured himself that the officer was forward on watch.

To Commissioner J. Park the witness said it was the chief officer's duty to see that the proper course was steered.

Commissioner Macpherson took up again the matter of giving courses by points rather than by degrees. Commissioner Park said that in his own experience on the B. C. coast he had found the system of degrees satisfactory.

The Blue Funnel liner Tyndareus is at Pier 2, Outer Docks, to-day, loading 1,000 tons of salt fish for the Orient. She docked about 8 o'clock this morning from Seattle.

LAUREL WHALEN TO BECOME DEPOT SHIP

Vessel Built at This Port Purchased by British Columbia Cement Company

Has Been Lying at Vancouver Since Completion of Disastrous Voyage

After many vicissitudes on the high seas the Victoria-built auxiliary schooner Laurel Whalen has finally ended her career as an ocean carrier.

The Laurel Whalen, which has been lying at Vancouver since the completion of her fateful voyage to Australia, has been purchased by the British Columbia Cement Company, Ltd., to be used, it is understood, as a depot supply ship incident to the company's cement manufacturing operations at the head of Saanich Inlet. The vessel will be brought to this port, dismantled, and fitted out for the purpose in which it is proposed to utilize her.

The amount of the deal has not been made public, but it is understood that prior to the consummation of the negotiations by the B. C. Cement Co., the Laurel Whalen was in the market for about $50,000.

The Laurel Whalen was owned by French interests and the deal was put through by Vancouver agents representing the owners.

Built Here.

One of the six wooden auxiliary schooners built at the Point Ellice shipyards by the Cameron Gerloa Mills Shipbuilders, Ltd., of which J. H. Price, the well known shipbuilder, was president and general manager, the Laurel Whalen has had a short but eventful career.

On her maiden voyage she carried British Columbia lumber to Australia. Battered by successive storms the vessel had a rough time and she spent many months lying idle at different ports in the South Seas.

Finally setting out from Australia with a cargo for this coast the Laurel Whalen was forced to put back to the New Zealand port of Auckland in a distressed condition. After repairs had been effected she set out again and later limped into Papeete, Tahiti.

Towed Back.

After she had been lying at Papeete for some months a tug was dispatched from this coast and towed the craft to Vancouver.

The Laurel Whalen was built for the Canada West Coast Navigation Company and was later sold to French interests.

TWO MEN INJURED AT WHARVES HERE

Quartermaster Myren, of M.S. Wakena, Sustains Fractured Skull at G.T.P. Wharf

Two nasty accidents occurred during last night, both of which befel men engaged on vessels moored at the local docks.

At 1.40 this morning Quartermaster John Myren, of the M. S. Wakena, suffered a fractured skull and was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital, where he now lies in a dangerous condition.

The Wakena was lying alongside the G. T. P. wharf and Myren, while taking up the heaving line, fell from the dock, a distance of twelve feet, to the landing stage below. Constable George Forster, of the city police, arrived on the scene, and realizing the condition of the injured man, at once had him removed to the hospital, where Dr. Moore attended to him.

Myren is a married man and it is understood he has a wife and two children in Seattle. The relatives have been notified.

The second accident occurred at 7 o'clock last night on the Puget Sound wharf. In answer to a call, Constable Jones went to the dock in the patrol and found that Second Engineer W. R. Day, of the S.S. Kiltuck, had fallen down the hold and had sustained injuries to his back, which necessitated his removal to St. Joseph's Hospital. Dr. Lennox attended the patient.

GYPSY MUSICIANS ARE AT PANTAGES

"Carnival of Venice" Is Remarkable Act, Supported By Exceptional Bill

A programme that is distinctly above the usual standard is being presented at Pantages Theatre this week, commencing with this afternoon's matinee. As usual, a wide variety of vaudeville entertainment is offered, so that everyone's taste may be satisfied.

"Carnival of Venice," is the title of a lavish production in which six Venetian gypsies take part. There is a programme of song and instrumental music and the whole act, which headlines the bill, is accompanied by the characteristic Bohemian atmosphere. All members of the troupe are Italians and they are worthy representatives of the world's foremost musical race. Aside from the singing numbers, the company performs on a wide assortment of instruments, the shepherd's pipe being particularly original. The act has a splendid setting, the scenic effects being elaborate and effective, picturing a typical gypsy caravan encampment on the outskirts of Venice.

King and Irwin, a couple of blackface funsters, appear as the special added attraction. They are comedians of exceptional talent and their offering entitled "Coontown Divorces," with Dave Irwin as Alexander Shreveport Moore, the lawyer, and John H. King in the two characters of Mr. and Mrs. Salamander Blue, is a bright and laughable absurdity.

Pot Pourri is vaudeville's latest novelty. It is a gorgeously beautiful act. Against a sable background on which glitter silvery stars, swing dozens of snow-white parrots and others of many colors, while white doves fly overhead. With this as a setting a girl dancer goes through a number of graceful dance movements. Several tableaux complete the act.

The Four Fantinos, world famous gymnasts, appear in a series of amazing feats of strength and skill upon rings and bars in mid-air. Their performance is one of the most marvelous of its kind in vaudeville.

Harry Bussey has a versatile offering which he calls "Sense and Nonsense." He does a little of everything, including, dancing, singing cartooning, conjuring and comedy chatter. His act is a show itself.

Frank Cook and Jean Vernon appear in their comedy success "Sister Susie." Both are clever artists, and have been scoring heavily all along the road.

Another instalment of the adventure serial by Pathe "Trailed by Three," completes the bill.

COLUMBIA

At the Columbia Theatre last night a large audience came to enjoy Frank Mayo in his newest photoplay, "The Red Lane." Most of the audience had seen this well-liked star in "The Brute Breaker," "Lasca," "Burnt Wings" and "The Girl in Number 29," and anticipated a pleasant evening. It is only fair to the management to say that no one was disappointed and there were many who pronounced "The Red Lane" the best out door drama in many months. With an author of the reputation of Holman Day as the writer of the story it is not surprising that an excellent vehicle was provided for Mayo. The bracing atmosphere of the North Maine woods, the adventure and intrigue peculiar to an international border, provide the story with many a thrill. The fistic combats one expects in a Mayo picture are plentiful, while a love story of unusual interest affords sentiment in generous doses. In "The Red Lane" Frank Mayo is seen as Norman Aldrich, an American customs officer, who is opposed to the smugglers and timberland grabbers on the Canadian border. His love for the charming daughter of the man whose home is the rendezvous for his enemies, complicates the young man's romance and gives rise to many situations that are absorbing in the extreme. After a beautiful opening, in which the pastoral charm of the scene is contrasted with the dark deeds of the smugglers, the plot develops a series of terrific punches which keeps the interest at high pitch to the final scene.

VARIETY

Strange disturbances occurred in the minds of two beings through a chance meeting of their eyes. Richard Bedell and Eve de Merincourt did not meet. They were strangers, belonging to two different worlds. Again their eyes met through a window, but still they were strangers. In the story of "Trumpet Island," written by Gouverneur Morris and edited and embellished by Mr. and Mrs. George Randolph Chester to provide fitting material for a spectacular Vitagraph special production, thrilling situations abound. The element of suspense is sustained through extraordinary plays of circumstances. The roles are enacted by an all star cast under the direction of Tom Terriss, and the result is a picture drama which will not be forgotten by anyone who witnesses it. "Trumpet Island" will be shown at the Variety Theatre again to-day; also the great animal picture, "The Lost City."

St. Paul's Cathedral cost £750,000, and occupied over forty years in building.

"BOSS OF BAR Z" RANCH AT PRINCESS

Cowboy Comedy Will Be Presented by Mildred Page Players

To-night at the Princess Theatre the Mildred Page Players will present a cowboy comedy in three acts entitled, "Boss of Bar Z Ranch." This play has been carefully prepared and was chosen after thoughtful consideration because of the great success of the last cowboy comedy produced at the Princess. There is a splendid plot, and the action never lags for a moment, all the players are cast to advantage, and the Princess patrons are certain to be delighted with the attractive production from stage setting to lighting effects and acting.

Miss Lily Dooley, a well known Victoria girl, will appear in the cast of "Boss of Bar Z Ranch" as Madge Curtis, a tiny cowgirl, and pet of the "Bar Z" outfit, and no doubt her many friends will be pleased to welcome her to the Princess.

The little folk who attend the play this week are sure to enjoy themselves, and Miss Page is again offering two prizes for the best letters of criticism of the cowboy comedy, "Boss of Bar Z Ranch," and the prizes will be given at the Saturday matinee of the week following, which will be on Saturday, November 27.

ROYAL VICTORIA

As the most famous and richest women in Monte Carlo, Katherine MacDonald, whose past motion picture successes and feminine charms have earned her the title of "the American beauty," is seen in "Passions Playground," adapted from the world famous story "The Guests of Hercules," by C. N. and A. M. Williamson, and which will be shown at the Royal Victoria again to-night.

It has been said that no other book dealing with the royalty and wealthy persons who frequent the famous gambling resort and the experiences they encounter there has been as favorably received by the public as "The Guests of Hercules." The novelty of the picture embraces the story of a convent girl whose great winnings become the gossip of Monte Carlo. As Mary Grant, the convent girl, Katherine MacDonald has a role of exceptional dramatic value.

DOMINION

The public will enjoy a rare treat when George Melford's production of "The Round-up," starring Roscoe Arbuckle is presented at the Dominion Theatre to-day. Theatregoers will remember the great success achieved by Edmund Day's notable play a few years ago. Maclyn Arbuckle played the role of "Slim Hoover," the fat and jolly sheriff.

Another Arbuckle will be seen in the screen version, the fat hero of the new Paramount picture, Roscoe Arbuckle, who by virtue of his famous Paramount-Arbuckle comedies has done his share to keep the world bubbling over with joy.

This is the famous comedian's first appearance in a legitimate role, but he is said to have shown remarkable ability in his new work. The cast is virtually all-star, and the excellent photography is the work of Paul Perry.

"YEOMEN OF THE GUARD."

The forthcoming production of the "Yeomen of the Guard" at Pantages Theatre, on November 22, 23, 29 and 30, by the Victoria Dramatic and Operatic Society will be looked forward to by those who wish to renew their acquaintance with this most tuneful of light operas, for there are undoubtedly many in Victoria who saw the original production at the Savoy later, and they doubtless retain pleasant recollections of the delightful music and brilliant dialogue. On the other hand there are many who know the opera by name and reputation who will now have their first opportunity of witnessing what has been universally pronounced to be the masterpieces of those clever collaborators, Sir W. S. Gilbert and Sir Arthur Sullivan. "The Yeomen of the Guard" is practically new to Victoria, having been produced here but on one previous occasion and that many years ago.

For this production an exceptionally strong cast has been assembled as well as an excellent chorus, numbering some thirty-two picked voices.

Of the principals, Miss Eva Hart, who sings the part of Elsie, has a role which is admirably suited to her, giving her, as it does, ample scope for the display of both her fine voice and her finished acting. Miss Hart is not new to this role for she has already sung it on more than one occasion in London.

The role of Jack Point is portrayed by H. J. Davis, who in this part has an opportunity of showing his ability both as a singer and a most convincing actor. The part calls for lightning changes from gaiety to pathos and vice versa, and Mr. Davis's interpretation is an exceptionally fine piece of acting.

Eight out of every ten women have acquired ugly feet, say the experts, by wearing badly shaped shoes.

BAIRNSFATHER SAYS PUBLIC WAR WEARY

Finds It Desirable to Turn Talent to Peaceful Movements

New York, Nov. 17.—Captain Bruce Bairnsfather, the famous British cartoonist, has now begun his lecture tour in Canada. His new lecture, entitled "Old Bill, Me and the Income Tax," will be illustrated with rapid-fire cartoons drawn on the stage.

In discussing present conditions in England, Captain Bairnsfather said that there had been the same psychological reaction there as in other countries. "There is," he remarked, "a universal desire to blot out everything relating to the war. People avoid talking about it as much as possible and turn their thoughts to other things."

On this account I am devoting my cartoons to subjects unconnected with the war, and am endeavoring, hard as it is, to show the humorous side of the income tax, the strikes, high cost of living and other painful subjects. People in England seem to appreciate this sort of humor, and even in the midst of the recent coal strikes I lectured to record-breaking audiences. At Birmingham, a few days before I sailed, I lectured to over 3,000 people who filled the largest auditorium in the city, and hundreds were turned away."

"The capacity of the English classes to find humor in practically everything, will, in my opinion, save England from any serious radical revolutionary movement. They succeed in Russia very largely because the Slav is a gloomy fellow. In England one hears a great deal about Bolshevism and predictions that something terrible will happen, but as a matter of fact nothing ever does happen and everybody goes to the football game or the theatre."

"Englishmen, just now, are far more interested in what prices are going to do and who is going to strike next than they are in politics of any kind."

Captain Bairnsfather will be here on Thursday week.

ties must help to support the Province," said the ex-Mayor. "But no government has a right to rob the municipalities as the government is doing to-day. The municipalities have a right to have a part of the theatre, motor and other taxes.

"They are considering giving relief now because it has been in the Conservative platform for six months—that the Conservatives will give relief to the municipalities."

Mr. Stewart advocated a law to make it impossible for companies to sell stock unless they would prove to the proper authorities that they were bonafide prospositions. This would keep people from being "stung," as he had been stung frequently in different projects.

The speaker urged also an increase in government financial grants to hospitals.

"The government takes a great deal of credit for giving the women the vote," he went on. "It was a mandate for the people, the men of the Province gave it to them. Why take credit for something they didn't do? And then the Workmen's Compensation Act. All they did was to fill the positions created by legislation passed by the Bowser Government. They did not alter the Act in any shape or form."

J. J. Shallcross.

"We cannot go on killing the goose and still have the golden eggs," J. J. Shallcross warned the audience in speaking of the serious condition created by the continued taxation of land in British Columbia municipalities. "You cannot carry on your cities on revenue derived alone from the land," he said. "Why can't the people of Victoria pay their taxes? Because the wealth of the city of Victoria is not represented by land but by motor cars, amusement houses and so on. Moreover, there is an immense wealth of money in professional fees.

"We were told some time ago that if we put on our overalls and went to work we would get out of our difficulties. We did this and established the greatest payroll in the history of the city. The city did not benefit at all but, on the contrary, it had to bear extra burdens in affording the thousands of shipyard laborers, police and fire protection, school facilities and so forth. The Government, on the other hand, benefited from increased amusement, motor and other taxes.

"Nero fiddled as Rome burned. Isn't that what the Premier has been doing—sitting across the Bay while Victoria and Vancouver were going behind. They were taking liquor revenue, theatre taxes, motor taxes and are getting the cities 'Go back to your empty lots.'

"The solvency of the municipalities is as important as the solvency of the Province, and they have no right to tax the cities so heavily to pay out moneys on unorganized districts. The only remedy for the situation is that proposed by Mr. Bowser—a per capita grant. The Government is collecting quite enough from the activities of the municipalities to make a grant which will restore the morale of the owners. Mr. Oliver, who was one of a commission which investigated the matter, knows all about conditions, and we should not be satisfied with his intention to pass the buck to the next Legislature and let it grapple with it."

Ross Sutherland.

Mr. Sutherland wished to make it clear in commencement that he was not the son of Hugh Sutherland, but of Senator Sutherland, who had been born in Winnipeg, the son of a Scotsman who had settled there early in the Nineteenth Century. "But if you believe everything you hear of me, I'm a damned bad man," he remarked amid laughter.

The speaker, feeling that he should let Victoria people know what he was and what he had done, remarked that early in the war he had organized Red Cross work in Victoria and on the Island, and after this he had spent three years on the other side of the Atlantic doing his bit to help the boys at the front. Then he had come to Ottawa to plead with the Government to alter conditions under which Canadian soldiers fought. He had not left the Capital until he had got in writing assurances that these things would be done.

"What did your Premier and your Finance Minister do with regard to conscription?" he demanded. "The only patriot they had was Mr. Brewster, who loved his country."

While in England, Mr. Sutherland said, he had acted as a "go-between" in questions which Canadian soldiers desired to bring to the attention of the authorities. Later, on his return to Canada, he had urged the Government to adopt a broader policy in regard to food production and to get men of capital to open up prairie lands. His project had succeeded and large quantities of Indian Reserve lands had been brought under cultivation. He himself had set the lead by taking over 200 acres and putting it under crop.

Would Open Lands.

Mr. Sutherland criticized the policy of the Government in closing British Columbia lands from sale. He urged a plan whereby land would be sold to persons who would agree to produce from them. Thus the Province could be developed on sane, safe lines.

Inauguration of a plan whereby all new projects would be inspected and, if possible endorsed by the Government, was urged by the speaker. Investigation of enterprises, he thought, should be carried out by experts so that "wildcat" schemes, through which innocent investors had suffered so often in the past, could be prevented.

"I don't think any of us have sought these nominations," Mr. Sutherland concluded, "but if my earnestness, experience and desire to do the best I can for the Province is any factor, I would ask you for your suffrage. We want men in this country who are not just froth and foam, but who will do their work conscientiously without fear or favor. I won't follow my party into any dishonesty or into projects I consider not to the general interests of the country. I will support any party's project if its policies are for the good of the country."

"My! How I did used to dread having the Threshers come—but I don't mind now."

"WHY, a year ago I could no more think of cooking a big dinner than I could fly.

"I did not seem to have any strength then, and a little extra work or excitement would use me up for a week.

"The doctor said my nerves were weak and that I had nervous prostration. I certainly was nervous and irritable. I was always worrying about something.

"It all looks very foolish now. But that is just the difference between being weak and strong.

"Why doesn't every woman use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food when she gets run-down in health?

"But I suppose they do not all know about it or do not realize what it will do for them. Then perhaps some of them do not use it long enough to build up their exhausted nervous systems.

"One thing sure, the women of this community will know all about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, for they know how miserable I was, and I will see that they know what I used to make me well.

"I certainly did get into a terribly run-down condition, but no one would believe it to see me now since using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I can now take a real pleasure in life and its activities.

"And why shouldn't I? I sleep like a top, enjoy my meals and get outdoors where the fresh air and sunshine help to keep me feeling fine.

"I don't believe people appreciate good health until they have been sick for a time. I am sure that I did not. The credit for my splendid health now is undoubtedly due to the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and I want every woman to know it."

LOSES $10,000 SUIT

Nanaimo Man Will Now Have to Meet Heavy Costs of Collision Case Against Railway

Henry Edward Allen, of Nanaimo, yesterday lost his $10,000 suit against the E. & N. Railway, claimed as a result of damages when a freight train crumpled up his Ford at an Island Highway crossing last June, and killed Angus McRae and knocked the other three passengers unconscious.

Mr. Justice Macdonald said that the train was running at only 20 miles an hour and that Engineer James O. Droob had been careful, and had blown his whistle and sounded his bell. For visibility conditions at the railway crossing he said that the company could not be liable after complying with the requirements of the Railway Act.

Mr. Allen is now faced with the costs of the action. These costs include expenses of twenty-four witnesses brought from Nanaimo to Victoria for the trial, which lasted six days, the cost of the whole court moving to Nanaimo on Sunday and holding a session there and at the scene of the accident, and the professional charges of F. A. McDiarmid, of Vancouver, and Neil McDiarmid, of Nanaimo, who prosecuted, and J. E. McMullen, of Vancouver, who defended the railway.

After the "Flu"
Four Children Had
Whooping Cough

Whooping Cough, although specially a disease of childhood, is by no means confined to that period, but may occur at any time of life. It is one of the most dangerous diseases of infancy, and yearly causes more deaths than scarlet fever, typhoid or diphtheria, and is more common in female than male children.

Whooping Cough starts with sneezing, watering of the eyes, irritation of the throat, feverishness and cough.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is highly recommended by mothers everywhere for the relief of this trouble as it helps to clear the clogged-up air passages of the mucous and phlegm that has collected, and in this way bring on the "whoop" which brings the so-much-sought-for relief and heals and soothes the lungs.

Mrs. J. M. Rouse, Imperial, Sask., writes:—"After the 'flu,' last Fall, my four children took whooping cough and one of them developed bronchitis. After using two or three bottles of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup they were greatly relieved of their nasty coughs. It is an especially good remedy for children, and is so nice they take it readily, and ask for more."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is 35c. and 60c. a bottle at all dealers. Put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited Toronto, Ont.

UNEMPLOYMENT IS DISCUSSED BY VETERANS

Returned Men Find Heavy Percentage of Membership Is in Need of Work

When more than half the members attending last night's business meeting of the Great War Veterans' Association stood up in response to the formal request of President Stone, "Those unemployed will please so signify," the Association felt that the time had come for strong action to be taken to cope with the situation before it got worse.

The following night letter was sent to the Ottawa authorities, copies being sent to Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Prime Minister, the Federal Minister of Public Works, and the Minister of Labor:

"At a meeting of Victoria G. W. V. A. to-night, 50 per cent. of the meeting declared themselves unemployed. Among these are several major casualties, unfitted for work, and struggling with inadequate pensions, on verge of destitution. Meeting demands immediate action.

"H. P. THORPE,
"Secretary."

The discussion waxed distinctly warm at times, and after the subject of unemployment had been canvassed from every angle without any solution than early commencement of public works being discovered, Comrades Bowden and Dick suggested that a mass meeting of all returned men be called by co-operation of all the ex-service men's organizations, for the special discussion of unemployment and its remedy.

Comrade Bowden suggested that the various returned men's organizations throughout the Province should be asked to co-operate in the holding of such mass meetings on the same date, in order that the cumulative effect of such action may be almost a demonstration. The idea was adopted, and the ex-service organizations throughout the Province will be asked to consider the most suitable time for such a meeting and the most suitable terms of the resolution to be subitted for adoption before presentation to the Government.

Politics made a considerable stir at last night's meeting when a request that one of the political organizations should be allowed access to the membership roll of the Veterans was refused after warm debate.

Cost of Bread.

The fact that bread is considerably more costly in Victoria than it is in Vancouver was brought before the meeting, and after comparative prices at Winnipeg, Calgary, Vancouver and this city had been read, the meeting passed a vote of condemnation on the city bakeries for not having reduced the cost of bread with the reduction in the cost of ingredients.

Armistice Day.

General offence was felt at the attitude of indifference which marked the observation of Armistice Day in Victoria. Comrade Webb brought the matter to the fore, and the following resolution was passed: "That the meeting deplore the lack of official recognition of Armistice Day, and in conjunction with other organizations will take steps to bring the question before the City Council prior to Armistice Day in 1921, with a view to proper recognition being given.

EUROPE'S DEFICITS AND EXCHANGE

Three-quarters of Civilized World Not Paying Its Way

Ottawa, Nov. 17. — (Canadian Press.)—There are few indications of any improvement in the exchange conditions as between European countries and Canada and the United States, according to the best advices received here. A detailed report of the proceedings of the financial conference of the Allied Governments held in Brussels some time ago and at which Canada was represented by Hon. Hugh Guthrie, gives little indications of any improvement in monetary conditions in continental countries.

Not Paying Way.

The startling fact was revealed in the public finance report submitted to the conference that three out of four nations represented at the conference will have a budget deficit this year, which means that three-quarters of the civilized world is not paying its way in the second year after the cessation of hostilities.

Britain is Exception.

It was also shown at the conference that eleven out of the twelve European nations are this year spending more than they are receiving in revenue, the one exception being Great Britain. This is a condition of affairs which means a further decrease in the purchasing power of the continent, which is not paying its way and is still printing money for the purpose of spending more than it has actually got. In these circumstances, it is stated by financial experts, no surprise need be felt if the weakness of continental exchange is indefinitely continued.

ONE-MAN FARMS ARE THE RULE NOW

Tariff Commission Hears Man Representing United Farmers of Quebec

Montreal, Nov. 17.—A. H. Clement, president of the United Farmers of Quebec, not being adept at English, called upon one of his brother officers, John C. McCollum, a farmer of Labelle, to submit to examination by Sir Henry Drayton on points raised in the written statemeut presented to the Tariff Commission here yesterday by the organization.

Mr. McCollum said that prices for farms in his district had greatly advanced since conscription.

"How do you make that out?" asked Sir Henry.

"I do not know," replied Mr. McCollum, "but there has been a terrible demand for farm land in my district since conscription was enforced."

Labor Shortage.

After discussing immigration of farmers from the eastern districts and finding that the two witnesses had no personal knowledge of such immigration, Sir Henry asked: "What is your real trouble?"

"Shortage of labor," replied Mr. McCollum. "We have got down to a one-man-one-farm basis, and farmers can not afford to compete with the cities for labor, and are in a poor condition."

"Don't you get a good living?" asked Sir Henry.

Tired.

"Yes," answered the witness, "of course we get a good living, but we are too tired most of the time to enjoy it."

Witness added that he was anxious to change his lot. He would go to some place where his wife would have a better time and his son a better education, although he lived within a mile of a school.

LIGHTHOUSE MAN'S WIFE SUCCUMBED

Midland, Ont., Nov. 17.—Arthur H. Griffiths, for twenty-two years lighthouse keeper on a lonely rock in Georgian Bay known as the Giant's Tomb, about twelve miles from this place, who lived alone with his wife there, lost his wife last Friday night after a day's illness. A strong gale prevented his getting to the mainland until last night, when after three days and nights of lonely vigil he was enabled to reach Midland and make preparations for his wife's burial.

SUSPECT HELD IN TERMINAL CITY

Vancouver, Nov. 17.—Another suspect, whose name the police refuse to divulge, has been arrested in connection with Saturday's daring daylight holdup, when S. M. Blakeley, assistant cashier of the Imperial Oil Company, was robbed of $1,500 cash and cheques to the amount of $20,000. He is being held for investigation in the hope that evidence may be secured that will prove him to be the companion of Saylor T. Malone, who has confessed to his share in the holdup.

"CURLY" O'NEIL IN JAIL IN WINNIPEG

Winnipeg, Nov. 17.—Police bringing "Curly" O'Neil, one of the alleged slayers of Alex McCurdy and James Uttley, provincial morality officers, back to Winnipeg from Moose Jaw, feared mob violence when a mob gathered at the C.P.R. depot, so they spirited him away. O'Neil was lodged safely in the city jail.

Buller, the other alleged slayer, is still at large.

VESSEL OFF NEW JERSEY ASKS AID

Spanish S.S. Yute, 240 Miles Off Cape May, Calls For Assistance

New York, Nov. 17.—The Spanish steamship Yute, bound for Dunkirk from Baltimore and 240 miles east southeast of Cape May, N. J., sent a wireless call for help early to-day, the naval communications office here has announced. No report of her condition was available at 9.45 a. m.

The Yute is an iron freight steamship of 4,800 tons gross register, built in 1884 at Barrow, Eng. Vessels of her size usually carry a crew of forty-five or fifty men.

THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Proves That Plain Bitro-Phosphate Helps to Build Strong Nerves and Put on Firm Healthy Flesh.

Feed your nerves plenty of phosphate with enough left over to give the blood and bone cells a generous helping and you should quickly note a return to old-time vigor with a power of endurance that will surprise you.

So say two prominent New York physicians. Thinness, weakness and lack of ambition are in most cases due to underfed nerves, and this is so, simply because modern foods are lamentably weak in phosphoric elements.

Over 40 per cent. of the people of America need more phosphate, and about the only way that many thin people can take on more pounds of firm, vigorous flesh is to feed the nerves direct with Bitro-Phosphate, a plain, ordinary organic phosphate that druggists know all about.

Tens of thousands of run-down, delicate, frail underweight people have learned the way to better health through Bitro-Phosphate. It was just the one element lacking to put on much desired flesh and bring them health, happiness, and a mind free from dullness.

WAGE REDUCTION FIGHT IN TORONTO

Toronto, Nov. 17.—"During the war we bore the brunt while employers made huge profits, and now it seems that we are expected to do so again," said Mr. Hopkins, secretary of the Painters' and Decorators' Union, yesterday in connection with the notice given by the employers in the building trades here that there would be a reduction in wages next year.

The building trades unions hope to secure the moral support of all the local labor organizations in their coming fight against wage reductions.

TRAINMEN INJURED IN IDAHO SMASH

Spokane, Nov. 17.—Engineer Landis and fireman McKnight were slightly injured when a rock slide struck Great Northern westbound fast mail train No. 27 at Katka, Idaho, early to-day. The engine was derailed, but the cars remained on the track.

Great Northern passenger trains No. 1, No. 3, and No. 4, westbound, were delayed by the wreck for six hours.

STRIKE ENDED.

ONLY WANT CHANCE TO BRING BIG JOB TO LOCAL WORKERS

Board of Trade Asking Tenders Be Called For Prince Rupert Repairs

The Council of the Board of Trade this morning decided that an effort should be made to counteract the attempts which Prince Rupert is making to secure the repairing of the steamer Prince Rupert at the northern port without the formality of calling for tenders being first complied with by the Canadian National Railways.

Norman Yarrow brought the matter to the attention of the Board, saying that in fair competition the Victoria yards could secure the repair of the vessel, but there was almost a certainty that, with the presence of Col. Peck, V. C., M. B., and Mr. Pillsbury at Ottawa, there was little likelihood of the big repair job being put to tender unless strong representations were made from other portions of the Province.

The Board decided that, as Mr. Hanna had stated, when in Victoria, that politics had nothing to do with the operation of the Canadian National Railways, he should be asked to call for tenders for the work, and a telegram to that effect will be sent to President Hanna to-day, to be followed with a letter.

In making his plea for support Mr. Yarrow said that he was not bespeaking any support which the Board was not willing to give any other ship repairing concern. He said that experience had shown that whenever the Victoria shipyards got a chance to tender against Prince Rupert or even other cities, they gave quicker service, charged lower prices, and did better work, citing the case of the Prince George as an example, when the local concern had to bring that vessel from the North here before they began to work on their contract. "We can beat them on all and every point, Prince Rupert isn't the only bristle in the brush," he said, and pointed out that the contract is of such magnitude as to be worth a tremendous community effort to bring the work here.

DISPUTE OVER LAND

Case of Foxwell vs. Margison Proceeding in Court.

In the Supreme Court this morning before Mr. Justice Macdonald the case of Foxwell vs. Margison was begun and was continued this afternoon. The claim is for restoration of money paid by Captain C. H. Foxwell to Captain W. H. D. Margison on a piece of land on Stelly's Cross Road, Saanich, known as Margison's Farm. Plaintiff claims that he paid $2,500 on account of the purchase price, and $63 for taxes and $263 for interest.

The deal was put through a year before the war and Captain Foxwell went overseas on active service with the Royal Welsh Fusiliers. He was reported dead from Macedonia, and it is alleged that after his death was reported Captain Margison sold the property again. The defence produces a power of attorney from Captain Foxwell under authority of which the sale was made, but Captain Foxwell contends that he has no knowledge of having signed such a document.

J. A. Aikman is appearing for the plaintiff, and Crease and Crease for the defendant.

News of Markets and Finance

STOCKS WEAKEN AGAIN TO-DAY

(By Burdick Brothers, Ltd.)

New York, Nov. 17.—The stock market continued to show extreme weakness again to-day and new lows were recorded in a number of issues. During the forenoon there were slight rallies, but without success, as a fresh short interest invaded the market. As the session progressed, particularly in the last two hours, certain specialties developed conspicuous weakness, and the sharp decline registered in such issues had a sympathetic effect on the standard share list, with the result that most of the early gains were cancelled and left far behind. Money rates eased considerably near the close, being quoted at 6 per cent.

TO-DAY'S TRADING IN WINNIPEG MARKETS

Winnipeg, Nov. 17.—The wheat market showed some advances early in the session to-day, but turned very weak about mid-session and prices dropped off about 3 cents from the high marks. Offerings are fairly high and many farmers are selling their cash wheat held in store and buying the May. The switching of hedges into May caused the prices of December and May to be equal during most of to-day's session. There was a continued good demand for all grades of cash wheat at unchanged premiums to ¼ cent better. The demand is for both domestic and export trade.

The coarse grain markets were also weaker to-day. The cash demand for oats was fair for some grades only. Offerings were increasing and spreads unchanged.

Wheat closed ⅝ to 1 cent lower; oats 1⅜ to 1⅝ cents lower; barley ⅝ to 2½ cents lower; flax 3 to 62½ cents lower, and rye 2½ to 4 cents lower.

DRUG VENDOR GIVEN THREE MONTHS TERM

Chinaman Named Lum Goes to Prison; Wong Chow, the Tailor, Released

Three months' imprisonment was the sentence handed down by Magistrate Jay in the City Police Court in connection with the case brought against a Chinaman named Lum charged under the Opium and Narcotic Drug Act with unlawfully distributing cocaine to John Milne.

Wong Chow, a Chinese tailor on Pandora Street, who was charged with Lum in connection with the same offence, was dismissed. W. C. Moresby, counsel for both the accused, put up a strong defence in behalf of his clients, it being alleged in the course of the evidence that there was no business connection between the two Chinamen. The case was first called last week and a report of the evidence given in court at the hearing Monday has already been published.

Owing to the claim of the Detective Department that a drug ring existed in Victoria and the statement that every effort was being made to wipe it out, this case aroused a good deal of interest.

For some time past Detectives Siciliano and Phipps have been keeping a close watch on suspects and on the night of November 6 they proceeded to the home of Milne at 948 Mason Street. Shortly after midnight the accused visited the place and Lum went inside and delivered a package of the drug. Seizure and arrests followed.

HUNTER LOST.

Wenatchee, Wash., Nov. 17.—After four days of hunting no trace has been found of Jimmy Miller, former Coast League ball player, who has a pool room at Cashmere. It is feared that while on a hunting trip he slipped into a canyon and died of exposure.

"I can't imagine what Mildred sees in that Smith boy," remarked Mildred's mother. "He hasn't got brains enough in his head to fill a thimble." "Oh, well, I dare say your mother said the same thing about me when I came courting you!" replied the girl's father indulgently. But he suddenly lost his complacent smile when his wife retorted—"She certainly did, and I was just as big a fool as Mildred is now. I wouldn't listen to the advice of my elders."

GRAINS TAKE ANOTHER SLIDE

(By Burdick Brothers, Ltd.)

Chicago, Nov. 17.—The grain market here to-day was subject to another slide which lasted from shortly after the opening to the end of the session. Wheat opened at 188 for the December option and advanced to 190 and then turned, sliding 8 cents to 192. A slight rally was witnessed in the last five minutes. December wheat closing at 184⅝. Corn was also soft and new lows were recorded.

IRISH "INQUIRY" SO-CALLED IN UNITED STATES

Washington, Nov. 17.—Hearings on conditions in Ireland, with prominent officials of that country among those to appear, were to open here to-day before a commission from the Committee of One Hundred investigating conditions in Ireland.

The commission has been advised that numerous witnesses will make the trip from Ireland to tell of conditions. Some already have sailed.

The commission has stated that it hoped only to "establish the facts in the case of Ireland," and to lay these facts before the world.

TO RELIEVE CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or are hard of hearing or have head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmint (double strength), and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.

For All Complexion Ills

If the skin be colorless, sallow, muddy, over-red, blotchy or freckled, nothing will so surely overcome the condition as ordinary mercolized wax. It literally takes off a bad complexion—absorbs the dead and near-dead particles of surface skin, gently, gradually, causing no inconvenience at all. A new complexion is then in evidence, clear, spotless, delicately soft and beautiful. One ounce of this wax, procurable at any drug store, will rejuvenate even the worst complexion. It is used like cold cream.

RECEIVED DONATIONS FOR ABBEY RESTORATION

For the purpose of receiving contributions for the fund for the restoration of Westminster Abbey, Miss Finlayson threw open her charming home at Terrace Avenue yesterday afternoon for a musicale and tea under the auspices of the Bishop Cridge Ministering Chapter, I. O. D. E. Miss Kate Hemming, contralto, Miss Bartlett, pianist, and Miss Nora Atkinson, violinist, delighted the company with a pleasing programme.

After the completion of the musical programme tea was served, the hostess, Miss Finlayson, being assisted by the Misses Cotton and Miss Green.

The afternoon had commenced with the usual monthly meeting at which the regent, Mrs. Laundy, presided, and it was decided to hold the annual shower in aid of the Tuberculosis Society on December 20, at Miss Cridge's home, "Marifield." The proceeds from this sale will be devoted to purchasing Christmas boxes and hampers for the tubercular ward at the hospital.

Two new members joined the chapter, and the singing of the National Anthem brought the afternoon to a close.

Sale of Work.—The Ladies' Aid of the Belmont Methodist Church will hold a sale of work and home cooking and will serve afternoon tea at the schoolroom on Friday afternoon, December 3.

Saanich Parent Teachers. — The Saanich Parent Teachers' Associations are reminded to ask their delegates to attend the first meeting of the Central Association at the Tolmie School on December 26 at 8 o'clock.

TWO MEETINGS HELD IN SAANICH RIDING

Ward Seven Electors Hear Liberal and Conservative Speakers

Inclement weather had a great deal to do with the slack attendance at the Saanich Liberal meeting, held in Tillicum School, and the Conservative meeting in the Presbyterian Church last night, about forty people attending each meeting.

Rain descended in torrents, and the streets were in a muddy condition, making it very disagreeable and uninviting for the electors to turn out. Throughout the present campaign it has been pretty generally demonstrated that ward meetings do not prove much of an attraction and the attendance is not conducive to the finest efforts of oratory on the part of the candidates. On the other hand, however, it has been found that central meetings are always very well attended.

F. A. Pauline, Liberal candidate for Saanich, made the proposal to the Conservative organization that in order to avoid repetition of the same addresses and the multiplicity of meetings with possible poor attendances, the two parties should hold joint meetings, but this suggestion was turned down, it was stated last evening.

The Province's Rehabilitation.

In his address last night Mr. Pauline spoke along constructive lines and informed his audience of what steps had been taken by the Oliver Government to put the Province on a strictly business basis, and what was proposed for the future.

Without indulging in personalities, he compared the platforms of the opposing factions in the present political struggle, reviewing the situation pretty much in the same manner as he did the night previous at his Ward One meeting.

Mr. Pauline referred to the need of development of Vancouver Island if the city of Victoria and the surrounding districts were to increase, as they should do, in population and become prosperous as communities.

He drew attention once more to the difficulty that had been experienced by the Liberal Government in acquiescing in the municipalities' request for further assistance, owing to the fact that the building of the P. G. E., commenced by the Bowser Government, had, up to the present time, rendered it impossible to do so, but that the expanding revenues, due to the capable administration of the country by the Oliver Government, admitted of the hope of assistance being granted to them in the near future.

Mr. Pauline referred to the platform of Mr. Orford, the Soldier-Labor candidate, pointing out again that many of the planks were not within the jurisdiction of this Province. The proposal for a comprehensive scheme of industrial development of British Columbia would certainly receive his full support. The Old Age Pension matter was purely one for the Federal Government. The proposal to establish a Ministry of Health was unnecessary as the present administration of health affairs in the Province was in the capable hands of Hon. Dr. MacLean.

Asiatic Question.

Exclusion of Asiatics from the Province has always been a plank in the Liberal platform, but it is a matter for Dominion control and also takes in questions of Imperial consideration, the candidate said.

Regarding the cost of explosives for land clearing, Mr. Pauline said that at present cost prices it would be very expensive to use for clearing land, but the Government now had power under the Land Settlement Act to manufacture stumping powder. As soon as finances would allow, the speaker was prepared to advocate that the Government of British Columbia commence to manufacture cheap stumping powder for the purpose of clearing land, unless farmers can obtain it at a cheaper price than at present.

Conservative Meeting.

At the Presbyterian Church, Tillicum Road, M. P. Gordon, the Conservative candidate, explained to his audience that he and J. J. Shallcross had been responsible for inducing Mr. Bowser, the Conservative Leader, to adopt as one of the planks in their platform the granting of aid to municipalities on a per capita basis out of the consolidated revenue.

The speaker had a long list of grievances against the Liberal administration, which he dealt with at considerable length. He said there had been a big increase in the salary appropriations since the Liberals took office, though fewer employees were needed to-day than in past years.

"They cannot give a few dollars for a hospital or for any other useful purpose, but they find enough for salaries. It is the most outrageous government we have ever had in the country.

"There has been an increase in taxation in all directions. Abolition of patronage is all talk on their part. They have dismissed from office a lot of old employees—threw them out in the street—to make room for new employees with no experience and of no good to the service," said Mr. Gordon.

The speaker said the Liberals, as soon as they got into power, had employed, at great expense, a firm of auditors for the express purpose of trying to find out something against the Conservatives, but the audit had failed of its purpose, and the speaker had not even heard of the report yet been tabled.

Criticism was levelled at the Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance, on the ground that he was a member of the business firm who had placed the insurance in connection with the P. G. E.

J. J. Shallcross criticized the Government on its borrowing policy and said that Oak Bay and Saanich had borrowed to better advantage than had the Province. He assured the audience that the next Government would not be an Oliver Government. Mr. Shallcross claimed that no attempt had been made to relieve the municipalities of their increasing burdens. The cost of administering the Liquor Act was borne by the municipalities, yet the Government offered nothing in return.

Land is the only source of revenue in the municipalities and land cannot be further taxed. The municipalities cannot pay their way and at the same time provide the necessary conveniences for the people, said Mr. Shallcross.

W. G. Gaunce spoke briefly. He claimed that the Government had gone into office on a fake cry of abolition of patronage. He accused the Government of failure properly to administer the Prohibition Act and criticized the Oliver administration on the question of its financial policy.

Vote of Confidence.

A vote of confidence was tendered, on the motion of R. S. Thompson, to F. A. Pauline, the Government candidate, for Mr. Pauline's services in the Legislature from 1917 to 1920.

J. M. Kellie presided.

Happy Valley Mission Hall.—On Saturday evening last, in the Lecture Room of the above Hall, a very interesting Lantern Lecture, "Seven Years in Wild Rhodesia," was given by H. Masters, who, together with his wife, recently returned from the Mission field of South Africa. Several of the views depicted thrilling dealings with the wild animals of the Country, as also successful medical, educational and spiritual work among the natives. The pictures were made doubly interesting by a vivid description of personal experience by Mr. Masters. On the motion of Rev. W. W. Winter, a hearty vote of thanks was accorded the lecturer and his two collaborators. The ladies of the congregation cheerfully provided refreshments, and a very pleasant evening was brought to a close with singing the National Anthem.
